Letter from the Governor...

Dear Fellow Marylanders:

It is my pleasure to present Maryland's Department of Juvenile Services' (DJS) FY 2021 Data Resource Guide.

Over the last seven years, it has been an honor to work with Secretary Sam Abed. His leadership and contributions have been invaluable to the State of Maryland and to the youth and families his agency serves. Thank you to the extraordinary team at DJS.

As we look back at the last 19 months, our nation has witnessed great challenges related to the COVID-19 pandemic. I am pleased to say that Maryland continues to be one of the most vaccinated states in America. By continuing to mask up and socially distance, we can continue to safely navigate through these challenging times while keeping the state open for business.

Larry Hogan

DJS plays an important role in improving the quality of life of young people and families living throughout our great state. Throughout the pandemic, DJS has adapted its operations and continued to successfully treat and supervise youth in the juvenile justice system. In particular, DJS' dedicated medical and nursing teams have worked tirelessly to keep youth and staff in DJS facilities as safe as possible to mitigate the impact of the COVID-19 virus. Under Secretary Abed's leadership, I have no doubt that DJS will continue to use all available resources to keep Maryland's youth, families, and communities safe.

As DJS works to treat, supervise, and support youth in the juvenile justice system, our administration continues to invest in the public safety of our communities. We have implemented our "Re-Fund the Police" initiative to ensure law enforcement officers get the resources they need to fight crime and keep our communities safe. Additionally, I have supported tougher sentences for those who commit crimes with guns and increased accountability for prosecutors and judges.

To enhance our efforts to support law enforcement, our administration has passed critical legislation to ensure that our criminal and juvenile justice systems are held accountable and that youth and victims are treated fairly. In 2016, we passed and enacted the Justice Reinvestment Act, which represents the most comprehensive criminal justice reform in a generation. The Juvenile Justice and Reform Council has recommended several key improvements to the juvenile justice system over the last two years. I am a firm believer in second chances and understand that individuals who get into trouble with the law, especially as juveniles, are capable of rehabilitation.

Over the last seven years, our administration has invested $1 billion in Baltimore City where many youth under DJS supervision reside. I am happy to see that DJS continues to collaborate with the city by partnering with law enforcement and enhancing critical resources to support youth and families.

The DJS Data Resource Guide is a valuable tool as we continue our work to strengthen resources for DJS youth and families in Maryland. This important annual data compilation allows DJS to efficiently and objectively allocate resources, hold stakeholders and localities accountable and improve the juvenile justice system in Maryland.

Our administration remains committed to keeping Maryland's communities safe and giving youth and families the resources they need to succeed. With the help of the Department of Juvenile Services and other executive agencies, we can continue to improve the lives of all citizens and change Maryland for the better.

Sincerely,

Larry Hogan Governor

iv Introduction

A Word from the Secretary...

Welcome to the 11th edition of the Department of Juvenile Services' Data Resource Guide (DRG). Our Department is a data-driven agency and the data we collect not only impact our decision-making process, but also decisions made by many of our stakeholders related to policy and practice. The information contained in the DRG provides a detailed look at our system and the ongoing trends in recent years. We publish the DRG every year to meet statutory obligations and provide transparency to our partners, both on the local and state level as well as the general public. I hope that the DRG provides the information you need, as well as insight into Maryland's juvenile justice system.

This year, as we continue to work towards normalcy, the Department remained strong in its response to the COVID-19 pandemic. Our entire team is full of incredible heroes. We have been under tremendous pressure to balance our infection mitigation strategies with providing our youth the best treatment and care. We continue to implement guidance from the Maryland Department of Health and the Centers for Disease Control, as well as our own medical and nursing teams. Our detention and treatment programs regularly test the youth and staff, hold vaccination clinics, and promote masking and social distancing. I am proud of my entire staff, as they have remained resilient and consistent throughout this pandemic.

DJS remains transparent with the information it shares related to COVID-19. The COVID-19 webpage and hotline are updated regularly with the latest statistics and protocols. In addition, the agency is now reporting numbers of vaccinated staff weekly.

We have learned so much over the last year and continue to come up with new and effective approaches to serving our youth. DJS continues to view all actions and policies through a race equity lens. I also welcomed a new Deputy Secretary of Operations to assist in a reorganization of Community staff. This move will create smaller regions that directly align with the Maryland Judicial Circuits, focus on collaboration, expand community connections, and equitably distribute leadership teams. DJS has moved from six operational regions to eight operational regions. Regional Directors will oversee the intake, community supervision, and community detention operations in each region.

Another important action, resulting from the 2021 legislative session, was the passing of Senate Bill 497, which transfers the responsibility of implementing educational programming in DJS facilities from the Maryland State Department of Education to a newly formed Juvenile Services Education Board. This Board, which includes a new Superintendent, will oversee and provide educational services to all youth placed in DJS-operated detention and residential treatment facilities. In accordance with the statute, the official transfer of education operations to the Board will occur on July 1, 2022.

I am also happy to report that DJS continues to see a downward trend in our youth population numbers. Since January 2020, statewide complaints with DJS have dropped 63.8%. Our average daily population in detention decreased 55%. State-operated commitment numbers dropped 56.0%, which was a significant driver in the 83.0% decline in our out-of-state population. Tracking data is the best way for our Department to improve and that is why the Data Resource Guide is such a valuable tool.

As always, a huge thanks goes out to everyone involved with the production of this year's DRG, especially the Department's Research and Evaluation Unit, who analyzed and compiled the data. Without their hard work and dedication, the DRG would not exist. I also need to recognize the amazing staff we have at DJS. They continue to rise to the challenge to serve our youth and families.

Our success is and should be measured by the success of our youth. We are committed to improving the lives of young people, making communities safer, and changing Maryland for the better.

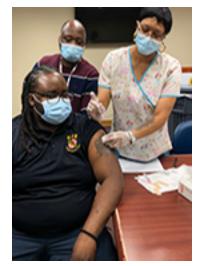

Sincerely,

Sam Abed

Introduction

DJS COVID-19 Pandemic Response

These infection control measures included universal masking, social distancing, stepped-up cleaning and disinfection procedures within DJS facilities, mandatory screening and quarantine for all youth admissions, contact tracing, telework for eligible employees, and increased use of phone and video calls. For a comprehensive description of the Department's COVID-19 pandemic response, please see the DJS COVID-19 page at: https://djs.maryland.gov/Pages/COVID-19.aspx.

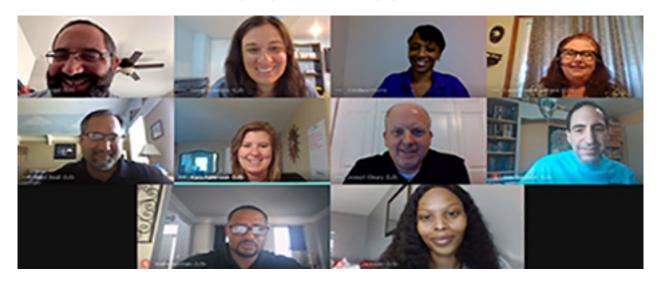

In early 2021, vaccines became available at first to individuals that met specific criteria and, later, to any adult and age-appropriate youth in Maryland. The Department's Somatic Health unit took the lead to vaccinate staff and age-appropriate youth in DJS facilities on a voluntary basis. As a result of the widespread availability of the vaccine, the restrictions on in-person visitation in DJS facilities were relaxed to provide much-needed and beneficial interactions between DJS youth and their families. Moving forward, facility administrators have the discretion to reimpose those restrictions on visitation in the event of COVID-19 outbreaks in a DJS facility or local community.

DJS continues to closely monitor and report the number of COVID-19 cases among staff and youth in DJS facilities. The DJS COVID-19 page on the DJS website provides helpful information regarding the agency's infection control measures and other reforms to its operations to reduce the risk among DJS staff and youth. Additionally, data related to COVID-19 positive results among DJS staff, youth, and private providers are provided on a daily basis.

Without question, the COVID-19 pandemic accelerated many changes in departmental operations. Specifically, DJS has now added live streams as a means of communicating in realtime with its staff and families. Additionally, the DJSTherapy Dog Program has boosted the morale at several facilities and helped provide stability and peace during these stressful times.

DJS LIVE STREAMS

The Department first used live stream technology in FY 2020 and found it to be a successful method of getting information to large groups of people in a relatively quick manner. Through the format of live streams, DJS executive staff were able to reach out to DJS families and staff to provide updates and reassurance during an uncertain time.

The format of the live streams was straightforward. Secretary Abed, along with a panel of executive leadership and subject matter experts, answered questions from families and staff, respectively, that covered topics ranging from the implementation of infection control measures to personnel and fair practice issues.

All of the Information Sessions for DJS staff and families, respectively, were live streamed and recorded on YouTube. Since July 2020, the Department has held 14 staff live streams and averaged 400 viewers per session. During that same period, DJS held five family live streams and averaged 40 viewers per session. The DJS Family Engagement Unit has since transitioned the Family Live Stream into a virtual support group. Live streams will continue as a valuable method of communication for the agency.

The Department's first therapy dog joined the youth and staff at Western Maryland Children's Center in 2019. Since then, therapy dogs have been paired with four more DJS-operated facilities throughout the State. The therapy dogs are specially trained to be part of the DJS treatment team at their respective facilities. The response to the DJS Therapy Dog Program has been overwhelmingly positive. Youth report that they feel more calm and content when interacting with the therapy dogs. Facility staff also form an attachment to therapy dogs as they play and care for the dogs throughout the day.

DJS works closely with a breeder who engages in a rigorous selection and training process to determine which dog is most suitable to work with youth in a congregate care environment. Prior to the therapy dog being assigned to a facility, a DJS staff person must volunteer to be a handler and take on the responsibility of taking care of the dog pursuant to DJS policy. Each therapy dog is assigned to a handler who brings the dog to the facility each day and takes the dog to their home each evening.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, therapy dogs have provided much-needed comfort and calming and improved the environment at every facility where the therapy dog program was implemented. Plans are currently under way to expand the Therapy Dog Program to additional DJS facilities and bring all the benefits to more youth and staff. In these challenging times, the joy of a furry, four-legged friend is immeasurable.

viii Introduction

Terms and Concepts

Absent Without Leave (AWOL): A youth who absconds from a non-secure residential program.

Accountability Incentives Management (AIM): A structured statewide system of responses to deter negative behaviors and encourage positive behaviors of youth under court-ordered community supervision. AIM seeks to reduce technical violations of supervision by ensuring certain, fair, and immediate responses to youth behavior to promote successful completion of supervision.

Adjudicatory Hearing: A proceeding before a juvenile judge or magistrate to determine whether allegations made against a youth are true. If the allegations concerning the commitment of a delinquent act are found to be true, the youth may be adjudicated delinquent.

Admission: See definition for "commitment versus admission" and "placement versus admission."

Aftercare: Supervision and individualized treatment services provided to youth in the community following discharge from a residential program. A youth is assigned an aftercare worker at the time of commitment.

Alternatives to Detention (ATD): Community-based program options that provide structured supervision and accountability of youth who would otherwise be detained pending adjudicatory hearings in the juvenile court.

ASSIST: The Automated Statewide System of Information Support Tools used as the DJS client database from 2001-2021.

Average Daily Population (ADP): Daily population of youth averaged over the number of days in a given time period.

Average Length of Stay (ALOS): Average total number of days in residential placement between admission and release. Youth detained in more than one facility during a contiguous stay are counted as a single placement.

Case Management Specialist (CMS): DJS staff who provide case management services to youth in community and residential settings. Case managers provide supervision, develop treatment plans, link youth with necessary resources and services, monitor progress, and modify treatment plans as needed.

Central Review Committee (CRC): A central committee that convenes weekly to hear case reviews of youth at risk of removal from a committed treatment placement, direct changes in the youths' provision of services, and make youth placement transfer decisions. Members include the Directors of the Behavioral Health and Resource Offices, the Executive Directors of Residential Placements and Community Supervision, and a representative from the Maryland State Department of Education (MSDE).

Certificate of Placement (COP): The document that reflects a youth's placement location, services, and authorizes service payment.

CHALLENGE: A behavior modification program focused on improving youth behavior and maintaining safety and security for youth in DJS detention facilities. It helps youth develop positive behaviors through a system of rewards and support and teaches youth to take responsibility for their behavior. In DJS treatment programs, CHALLENGE has been updated to incorporate PBIS principles and was renamed STARR in 2018.

Child in Need of Assistance (CINA): A youth who is found by the court to require court intervention, such as removal from the home and placement with a foster family or relative, because of abuse or neglect by a parent, guardian, or other person responsible for their care.

Child in Need of Supervision (CINS): A youth who is found by the court to need guidance, treatment, or rehabilitation because the youth committed an offense applicable only to children, is habitually truant, poses a risk of injury to themselves or others, or who is ungovernable (See definition for "Ungovernable").

Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (CBT): A psychosocial intervention that aims to improve mental health. CBT focuses on challenging and changing unhelpful cognitive distortions (e.g., thoughts, beliefs, and attitudes) and behaviors, improving emotional regulation, and developing personal coping strategies that help solve current problems.

Commitment versus Admission: A commitment is a court order placing a delinquent youth in the Department's care, which usually results in placement into an out-of-home program, but in some cases services may instead be provided in home. An admission occurs when a youth physically arrives at a facility and is officially entered onto the facility's roster, and this normally occurs some weeks after the court order. A single admission to an out-of-home program could be the result of multiple commitments - a youth may be committed by more than one court, or be committed on multiple charges - and a youth may be admitted to several programs under a single commitment order. Thus, the number of commitments will not equal the number of admissions to treatment programs.

Introduction

Community Detention (CD): A DJS program that monitors a delinquent child or a child alleged to be delinquent who is placed in the home of a parent, guardian, custodian, other fit person, or in shelter care, as a condition of probation or as an alternative to detention (ATD). Community detention often includes electronic monitoring (EM).

Complaint: A written statement made by any person or agency to a DJS intake officer which, if true, would support allegations of a juvenile petition.

Crimes of Violence: Offenses designated as crimes of violence in Maryland's Annotated Code (see Appendix K for more detail). Includes primarily felony offenses, but some misdemeanors.

Crossover Youth Practice Model (CYPM): A program to coordinate casework of youth who are dually involved in both the juvenile justice system and the child welfare system and foster increased communication and collaboration between the staff members of DJS and local Department of Social Services. DJS partnered with Georgetown University to implement the CYPM in Prince George's County in 2015. Since then, the model is being slowly rolled out in other Maryland counties.

Delinquent Act: An act which would be a crime if committed by an adult.

Delinquent Child: A child who has committed a delinquent act and requires guidance, treatment, or rehabilitation.

Detention: The temporary care of respondents who, pending court dispositions and other hearings, require secure custody for the protection of themselves or the community, in physically restricting facilities or circumstances. A youth may be detained if a court determines that they might fail to appear for a future hearing, continue to break the law, or pose a threat to the public or themselves. Detention may be utilized pending a court hearing or after disposition. A youth's detention status is required to be reviewed every 30 days.

Detention Hearing: A court proceeding to determine whether a youth shall be placed in or continue in detention.

Detention Risk Assessment Instrument (DRAI): An assessment of a youth's risk to reoffend and/or fail to appear for future court dates used to guide whether the youth should be detained, placed in a detention alternative, or released to a parent/guardian.

Dialectical Behavioral Therapy (DBT): A cognitive-behavioral treatment approach with two key characteristics: a behavioral, problem-solving focus blended with acceptance-based strategies, and an emphasis on dialectical processes. "Dialectical" refers to the issues involved in treating patients with multiple disorders and to the type of thought processes and behavioral styles used in the treatment strategies. DBT emphasizes balancing behavioral change, problem-solving, and emotional regulation with validation, mindfulness, and acceptance of patients. Therapists follow a detailed procedural manual.

Direct Care Staff: An employee whose primary duty is to provide direct supervision of youth.

Disposition: The action taken by the juvenile court that outlines whether the youth requires guidance, treatment, or rehabilitation and, if so, the nature of such assistance, e.g., probation terms or commitment. (Note: In adult courts, this is known as a "sentence.")

Disproportionate Minority Contact (DMC): A rate of contact with the juvenile justice system among youth of a specific minority group that is significantly different from the rate of contact for whites (i.e., non-Hispanic White) or for other minority groups (See RRI definition).

Diversion: A program or practice where the primary goal is to reduce the occurrence of juvenile delinquency by diverting a youth from the traditional juvenile justice system and providing an alternative to formal processing. Diversion programs and practices vary in terms of the juvenile justice contact point at which the youth is diverted and the types of services provided. Youth may be diverted by law enforcement before arrest, during DJS intake, or between adjudication and disposition.

Electronic Monitoring (EM): A statewide program providing close monitoring of youth in the community as an alternative to residential placement/detention. Youth wear an ankle bracelet that electronically monitors their movement and compliance to established location parameters. This may involve the use of global positioning systems (GPS).

Escape: Absconding from a secure DJS residential program (including Youth Centers) or detention facility (including Community Detention).

Evening Reporting Center (ERC): A program that serves youth as an alternative to detention. Youth are required to report daily to ensure the youth are monitored and get back to court for hearings.

X Introduction

Evidence-Based Services (EBS): Programs that have been found to be effective based on the results of rigorous evaluations.

Family Centered Treatment (FCT): A trauma treatment model of home-based therapy designed for families who are at risk of dissolution or in need of reunification. It is also designed to serve youth who move between the child welfare, behavioral health, and juvenile justice systems. During treatment, FCT practitioners aim to help families identify their core emotional issues, identify functions of behaviors in a family systems context, change the emotional tone and behavioral interaction patterns among family members, and develop secure relationships by strengthening attachment bonds.

Family Engagement: A collaborative relationship between families and DJS throughout the youth's involvement in the system.

Family Peer Support Initiative: A program operated in partnership with Maryland Coalition of Families (MCF) that connects DJS youth and families at any stage of DJS contact with a family peer support specialist who has had previous experience with the juvenile justice system. Family peer support specialists help guide a family through the juvenile justice process, connect families to community-based services, and increase family empowerment. The program began in 2018 in Baltimore City and Anne Arundel, Baltimore, Prince George's, and Wicomico counties.

Felony vs. Misdemeanor: In Maryland a crime is either a felony or a misdemeanor. Generally, felonies are the more serious of these two types of crimes. However, there is no clear line for determining whether a crime is a felony or misdemeanor based on the statutory maximum penalty associated with the offense. Unless specified in a statute or the offense was a felony at common law, a crime is considered a misdemeanor. Most statutes specify whether a crime is a misdemeanor or a felony. Common law crimes retain common law grades as either felonies or misdemeanors unless changed through the legislative process. The General Assembly may choose to label a statutory crime a felony or misdemeanor independent of the amount of punishment the statute provides. The General Assembly may also choose to change the status of a crime from a misdemeanor to a felony or a felony to a misdemeanor.

Fiscal Year (FY): The time period measured from July 1 of one year to June 30 of the following year. FY 2021 runs from July 1, 2020 through June 30, 2021.

For Authorization of Formal Petition (FAFP): A decision by a DJS intake officer to authorize the State's Attorney to petition the court for formal processing.

Functional Family Therapy (FFT - an EBS): An outcome-driven prevention/intervention program for youth demonstrating the entire range of maladaptive behaviors such as delinquency, violence, substance use, Conduct Disorder, Oppositional Defiant Disorder, or Disruptive Behavior Disorder. Flexible delivery of service is provided by one- or two-person teams to clients in home, clinic, school, juvenile court, community-based programs, and at re-entry from institutional placement.

Global Positioning System (GPS): A global navigation satellite system that provides location and time information for youth monitored with a global positioning system receiver.

Group Home: A residential program licensed by DHS, DJS, or MHA/MDH to provide 24-hour supervised out-of-home care for 4 or more youth providing a formal program of basic care, social work, and health care services.

Hardware Secure Facility: A facility that relies primarily on the use of construction and hardware such as locks, bars, and fences to restrict freedom.

Informal Supervision: See definition for "Pre-Court Supervision."

Intake: The process for reviewing a complaint against a youth and determining whether the juvenile court has jurisdiction and whether judicial action is in the best interest of the public and/or the youth. During intake, youth and their family may be offered services. DJS has statutory authority to screen all juvenile complaints referred.

Juvenile Court: A division of the Circuit Court in Maryland.

Juvenile Detention Alternatives Initiative (JDAI): A best practice model that addresses inappropriate and unnecessary use of detention and reduces the failures of juveniles to appear in court. A primary goal of JDAI is to reduce overcrowding in detention centers by safely maintaining youth in the community in detention alternatives without jeopardizing public safety or increasing the number of youth who fail to appear for court.

Introduction xi

Juvenile Justice Monitoring Unit (JJMU): Administratively housed in the Office of the Attorney General, the unit investigates the needs of children under the jurisdiction of DJS and determines whether their needs are being met in compliance with State law. This includes evaluating the conditions of youth housing, reporting on treatment of and services to youth, and investigating allegations of child abuse.

Juvenile Justice Reform Council (JJRC): Established by law in 2019, and currently authorized through 2022, the council has members from all three branches of State government, other key stakeholders, and national experts. It is charged to develop a statewide framework of policies to invest in strategies to increase public safety and reduce recidivism of youth offenders, using a data-driven approach.

Juvenile Services Education System (JSES): A part of the Maryland Department of Education, JSES provides educational services to detained and committed youth in DJS facilities across the state. Services will be operated by DJS beginning in July 2022.

Maryland Comprehensive Assessment and Service Planning (MCASP): MCASP uses integrated case management to assess risks and needs of youth throughout their DJS involvement and develop interventions to accomplish the goals of public safety and youth rehabilitation. MCASP enables DJS to strengthen individualized service plans for youth and families and match them with appropriate services/programs, to track youth progress, and to ensure that each youth receives the level of supervision consistent with his or her risk to public safety.

Maryland Evaluation and Treatment Services (METS - formerly SMART): A web-based platform that provides key case management functions, including assessments, contacts, and treatment service planning in coordination with the DJS ASSIST system.

Maryland Longitudinal Data System (MLDS): A research data center established by State law in 2010 to allow research and policy evaluation using matched, then de-identified data from the State education, workforce, and (as of October 2019) DJS data systems.

Maryland Police and Correctional Training Commissions (MPCTC): Under DPSCS, MPCTC is vested with the authority to set standards of initial selection and training for all governmental law enforcement, correctional, parole and probation, and juvenile services employees in the State of Maryland, and to otherwise upgrade the professionalism of these officers. MPCTC provides certification and ongoing training to DJS staff.

Misdemeanor: See definition for "felony versus misdemeanor."

Multidisciplinary Assessment Staffing Team (MAST): A specialized regional diagnostic team responsible for assessing and evaluating youth who are detained and at risk of out-of-home placement, prior to disposition. Following the in-depth review, the MAST prepares security and treatment recommendations to the juvenile court. The MAST includes psychologists, social workers, community and facility case managers and supervisors, resource specialists, MSDE representatives, and individuals from other disciplines as needed.

Multisystemic Therapy (MST - an EBS): An intensive family- and community-based treatment program that addresses the serious anti-social behavior of juvenile offenders. The major goal of MST is to empower parents and youth with the skills and resources needed to independently resolve the difficulties that arise in coping with family, peer, school, and neighborhood problems. Intervention strategies include family therapy, structural family therapy, behavioral parent training, and cognitive behavior therapies. MST is a home-based model of service delivery.

Pending Placement: A temporary status for youth who have been committed for placement in an out-of-home residential treatment program and are awaiting placement, including youth removed from a committed placement. Youth may be "pending placement" in a variety of settings including: detention facility, home, home with additional services, home under community detention and/or electronic monitoring, family shelter care, structured shelter care, acute care hospitals, or psychiatric respite care programs.

Petition: A formal written request filed by the State's Attorney's Office with the juvenile court alleging that a child is delinquent, in need of supervision (CINS) or in need of assistance (CINA).

Placement versus Admission: A placement is based on a decision made by an intake officer or judge to place a youth into detention or a treatment program. An admission occurs when a youth physically enters a facility either through direct placement or through transfer. Thus, during one placement, a youth may have several admissions.

XÍÍ INTRODUCTION

Positive Behavior Interventions and Supports (PBIS): An implementation framework for maximizing the selection and use of evidence-based prevention and intervention practices along a multi-tiered continuum that supports the academic, social, emotional, and behavioral competence of youth in DJS facilities. PBIS principles guide the provision of medical, behavioral health, education, and recreation services, as well as Trauma-Informed Care (TIC) and the Department's STARR program. Facility teams use data on youth behavior to evaluate the effectiveness of facility operations, and youth behaviors and progress.

Pre-Adjudication Coordination and Training (PACT): PACT Evening Reporting Center serves youth 14 to 17 years of age in Baltimore City as an alternative to detention. It utilizes a youth development model and collaborates with participants, their families, DJS, and other partners to develop a plan to address the underlying issues which lead to anti-social or delinquent behavior.

Pre-Court Supervision: An agreement consented to by the youth, parent/guardian, and the victim diverting the case from formal court proceedings. The term is up to 90 days and may be extended to 180 days for substance abuse and mental health treatment needs by DJS or as otherwise ordered by the court. Failure to comply with the supervision agreement may result in a formal petition being filed.

Probation: Court-ordered supervision of youth in the community requiring youth to meet court-ordered probation conditions (general and case specific), including, for example, school attendance, employment, community service, restitution, counseling, or participation in substance abuse treatment.

Qualified Residential Treatment Program (QRTP): A residential program that has a trauma-informed treatment model that does the following: a) addresses the needs, including clinical needs as appropriate, of youth with serious emotional or behavioral disorders or disturbances; b) implements the treatment identified for youth within the required 30 calendar day assessment of placement appropriateness; c) has registered or licensed nursing staff and other licensed clinical staff available on-site 24 hours a day, 7 days a week and; d) is accredited by any of the independent, not-for-profit organizations approved by the Health and Human Service Administration.

Racial Equity: A condition that would be achieved if one's racial or ethnic identity no longer predicted, in a statistical sense, how one fares.

Recidivism: Subsequent juvenile/adult delinquent or criminal involvement of youth released from treatment programs or youth placed on probation.

Relative Rate Index (RRI): A measure of Disproportionate Minority Contact (DMC) with the juvenile justice system. It is a standardized tool used to assess the level of racial disparity introduced at each decision point (detention, court referral, etc.) For example, RRI compares the detention rate for white youth with the detention rate for youth of a specific minority group. (See Appendix O)

Re-entry: A broad term used to refer to the transition from out-of-home committed placement to community supervision. Generally, re-entry involves a plan to ensure youth are connected to school, employment, and continued treatment services when returning to the community.

Removal from Committed Placement (formerly called an ejection): A youth's removal from an out-of-home placement upon determination that the youth failed to comply with the rules and conditions of the program. Following a removal, a youth may require a new out-of-home placement. A youth may remain in detention pending a new placement.

Resident Advisor: DJS staff member who provides supervision, support, care, and monitoring of youth placed in DJS-operated facilities.

Residential Treatment Center (RTC): A mental health facility for children and adolescents with long-term serious emotional, behavioral, and psychological problems. RTCs provide intensive services and should only be considered when therapeutic services available in the community are insufficient to address a youth's needs. In addition to Maryland RTCs, DJS uses a variety of out-of-state providers, including RTCs funded through Medical Assistance, with rates set by the Maryland Interagency Rates Committee, and facilities that are not RTCs and serve moderate-to-high-risk multi-problem youth. These are youth who may be exhibiting moderate psychiatric symptoms and aggressive behavior, or who have histories of unsuccessful/repeated placements and/or hospitalizations. Treatment models vary depending on the client focus of the program, but all provide individualized treatment plans, are comprehensive in services, highly structured, treatment oriented, and behaviorally focused.

Residential Treatment Service Plan (RTSP): A structured treatment planning tool to guide treatment services for youth placed in DJS-operated treatment programs.

Introduction

Resolved at Intake: A determination by the DJS Intake officer that furthering the case by forwarding it to the State's Attorney's Office for formal processing or informal pre-court supervision would be disadvantageous to the interests of the youth and to public safety.

Restorative Justice: Seeks to repair the harm caused by criminal behavior by involving the community in rehabilitating youth and holding them accountable for their behavior. Includes victim-offender mediation, conferencing, dialogue circles, victim assistance, restitution, and community service.

SafeMeasures: An analytic service provided by Evident Change that provides timely management reports and indicators to DJS case management, supervisory, and executive staff. SafeMeasures pulls data from existing DJS databases and creates visual indicators and reports to ensure that the agency's requirements for effective facility operations, case management, and supervision are tracked and met.

Safety Planning Initiative (SPI): An intense supervision initiative for youth in DJS care who are witnesses to, or victims of violent acts, or otherwise at risk of violence.

Shelter Care: Temporary, short-term (1-30 days), non-secure housing of youth who are awaiting court disposition. Shelter beds serve as an alternative to detention or other short-term circumstance where family or other housing is not available.

Social History Investigation (SHI - formerly PDI): The written study of a youth and his/her family that is presented to the juvenile court. A SHI emphasizes social and legal histories as well as the domain areas of: family functioning, substance abuse, mental health, somatic health, education, employment, and life skills.

Social Skills Training and Aggression Replacement Techniques (START): Based on Aggression Replacement Training (ART), which is an evidence-based, cognitive behavioral, group intervention for committed youth with chronic aggression, START focuses on developing youth's social skills, anger control, and moral reasoning.

Spotlight on Schools (SOS) Program: An initiative to place case managers onsite at certain key schools across the state. DJS Spotlight workers monitor and respond immediately to attendance issues, referrals for disruptive behavior, suspensions, and drop-out issues for youth under DJS supervision, and offer prevention and early intervention services to other at-risk students. In addition, SOS workers provide immediate, on-site intake services for students involved in delinquent activity.

Staff Secure: Residential programs where youth movement is controlled by staff supervision rather than by restrictive architectural features.

STARR Program: A behavior motivation program that incorporates PBIS principles and is focused on improving youth behavior. It is used throughout each treatment program and involves youth and staff. The STARR program teaches youth skills to address negative behaviors and emotions and develop positive behaviors through a structured reinforcement system that includes rewards, supports, and levels. Youth are taught to take responsibility for their behavior, and a safe, predictable, and positive environment is maintained within facilities. It accomplishes these goals by focusing on the following positive behaviors that are captured in the STARR acronym: Solve Problems in a Mature and Responsible Manner; Task Focused; Act as a Role Model; Respect Self, Others, Facility Property, and Rules; Responsible for my Behavior.

State Advisory Board: The Board consists of 21 members appointed by the Governor for 3-year terms. By law, it includes at least one youth member who was under the Department's jurisdiction and also a parent or guardian of a youth who was under the Department's supervision. The Board recommends to the Secretary of Juvenile Services policies and programs to improve State juvenile services. The Board helps plan development, use of resources, and helps inform the public of the Department's work.

Trauma, Addictions, Mental Health, and Recovery for Youth (TAMAR-Y): A structured trauma education group that teaches youth to identify stress and trauma triggers. Youth also learn skills such as deep breathing and mindfulness techniques to address their reactions to stress and trauma triggers. TAMAR-Y uses a multimedia approach that includes videos to stimulate discussion, and incorporates expressive arts therapies that involve writing and drawing activities to engage youth and help them develop a better understanding of their experiences. Some of the topics covered in groups include: Understanding Trauma's Impact, Dealing with Triggers, Trauma and Addiction - How We Cope, Keeping It Together - Containment, Who I Am, and Connections.

XÍV INTRODUCTION

Trauma-Informed Care (TIC): A service delivery approach that takes into account past trauma and the resulting coping mechanisms when attempting to understand behaviors and provide services. Trauma-informed care is a framework or a lens through which we recognize the prevalence of early adversity in the lives of youth, view presenting problems as symptoms of maladaptive coping, and understand how early trauma shapes a youth's fundamental beliefs about the world and affects his or her behavior. In trauma-informed counseling clinicians apply the principles of trauma-informed care by identifying youth's strengths and positive coping strategies in order to assist the youth in managing stress.

Trauma Specific Treatment (TST): Treatment services that address traumatic stress as well as any co-occurring disorders (including substance use and mental disorders) that developed during or after trauma. Trauma Specific Treatments directly address trauma related symptoms and Posttraumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD). Trauma Focused-Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (TF-CBT) is an example of a trauma specific treatment.

Treatment Service Plan (TSP): A written document identifying treatment objectives, services, and service linkages that address the needs of the youth and family. It also examines the safety and appropriateness of the youth's placement, guides agency recommendations to the juvenile court for permanency planning (where appropriate), and monitors level of supervision and services required.

Under 13 (U-13) Initiative: A school-based intervention designed to provide support and services for juvenile offenders ages 12 years and younger through collaborative partnerships between DJS, Baltimore City/Prince George's County Public Schools, the local Department of Social Services, and other child-serving stakeholders.

Ungovernable: Being beyond the control of parents, guardians, or custodians or being disobedient of parental authority.

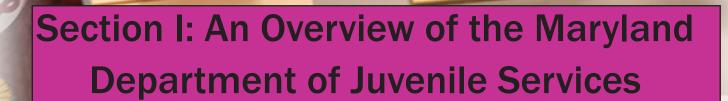

Violation of Probation (VOP): A hearing conducted by the court to determine if the conditions of community supervision have been violated. A VOP is considered a technical violation if it does not involve a new delinquent offense.

Youth: The preferred term for individuals under 18 years of age as used by DJS.

Introduction to the Maryland Department of Juvenile Services

The Department of Juvenile Services (DJS) is an executive agency charged with the responsibility of appropriately managing, supervising and treating youth who are involved in the juvenile justice system in Maryland. DJS provides individualized care and treatment to youth who have violated the law or who pose a safety risk to themselves or others. Objective screening and assessment tools are utilized to manage youth with the guidance of the data collected. DJS works with partners in the community to achieve meaningful improvements to the outcomes of the youth served.

OBJECTIVE ASSESSMENT TOOLS

Objective screening and assessment tools guide key decisions. For example, DJS Intake Officers are statutorily empowered to screen juvenile offenses and determine which complaints should be referred to the State's Attorney's Office (SAO) for formal court petitioning. This decision is guided by the validated and objective Intake Decision Tool (IDT) that identifies a youth's risk of recidivism, strengths, and service needs. Implemented in July 2020, and a part of the Maryland Comprehensive Assessment and Service Planning (MCASP) process, the tool is intended to ensure fair and equitable decisions that are developmentally appropriate, culturally proficient, and tailored to the risks, needs, and strengths of youth (See Appendix N).

The Detention Risk Assessment Instrument (DRAI) evaluates whether a youth should be held in secure detention, placed in a supervised detention alternative, or released while awaiting a hearing on the merits of a juvenile complaint. This tool helps the Department improve its detention practices by taking subjectivity out of the critical detention decision, with a goal of detaining only those youth who pose a risk to public safety, to themselves, or who would not otherwise appear in court (See Appendix F).

If a youth has been adjudicated delinquent, the Department utilizes the MCASP Needs Assessment to identify the youth's treatment and security needs, which serve as the basis for the Treatment Service Plan (TSP) development. Using an objective instrument allows the Department to make better matches between youth and the course of treatment available within the continuum of care. The continuum of care spans in-home probation supervision with services, community-based out-of-home treatment, and state- and privately-operated secure programs, all designed to address youth needs and the factors that led the youth to delinquent behavior.

MANAGING WITH DATA

The information developed from assessment tools, as well as information collected by caseworkers, investigators, auditors, and facility staff, is used at all levels of DJS management. Data reports are available to field staff and managers through the Automated Statewide System of Information Support Tools (ASSIST), the Maryland Evaluation and Treatment Services (METS), and SafeMeasures reporting systems. Research and Evaluation staff regularly analyze data, generating reports for agency decision makers, the Governor's Office, and reports to the Maryland General Assembly. This Data Resource Guide represents the most comprehensive report of the Department's aggregated data. County- and program-level data are readily available to all. This is crucial for practitioners because statewide trends could mask local trends. As innovative new ways of examining information are uncovered, these will be incorporated into this publication. In FY 2022, DJS will be transitioning to a new case management system called CJAMS (Child, Juvenile, and Adult Management System). This application has been developed in partnership with the Maryland Department of Human Services (DHS) and is securely hosted on a state government shared platform. This will provide current technology to collect, analyze, and share data to improve business intelligence and better support our staff, fellow agencies, and Maryland communities.

COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIPS

The Department's partnerships start in the community. Throughout the State, the Department works with local government, law enforcement, courts, health departments, attorneys, and other stakeholders to keep youth in the Department safe and supported. Field staff make referrals to community-based providers who help meet the treatment needs of youth under supervision in the community.

State partners, such as the Maryland State Department of Education (MSDE), DHS, and the Maryland Department of Health (MDH), collaborate at many levels to deliver services in the most effective manner. DJS also works closely with the Maryland State Police (MSP) and the Governor's Office of Crime Prevention, Youth, and Victim Services to ensure information is shared across agencies and public safety goals are met.

EQUITY

The DJS Racial Equity Framework involves a series of actions taken to examine and develop solutions to agency policy and practices that may directly or indirectly yield racially disparate outcomes for youth and families of color. DJS actions for race equity include: extensive staff capacity-building to engage in race equity dialogue and solutions; routine data collection and reporting on youth of color to help better understand the problem and to monitor progress of implemented equity reforms; use of a specialized equity lens to vet agency policy and practice for specific impact on youth of color; and adoption of model practices that are proven or promoted to be effective for youth and families of color. This work is led by the DJS Office of Equity and Inclusion (OEI), which is a dedicated unit of agency staff who focus on youth outcomes and targeted reforms for specific youth populations distinguished by race, ethnicity, gender, sex, and sexuality.

FAMILY ENGAGEMENT

DJS recognizes that family engagement is critical to positive outcomes for youth involved in the juvenile justice system. Keeping families engaged and informed throughout the legal process is a priority for the Department. The Office of Family Engagement works to ensure family members are knowledgeable about their loved one's detainment, court orders, treatment, supervision, and re-entry into their communities and schools. It also promotes the active participation of families in the process to support youth and reduce their risks for recidivism.

DJS Strategic Plan (May, 2017)

MISSION OF THE MARYLAND DEPARTMENT OF JUVENILE SERVICES (DJS)

By law, DJS is a child-serving agency responsible for assessing the individual needs of referred youth and providing intake, detention, probation, commitment, and aftercare services.

DJS collaborates with youth, families, schools, community partners, law enforcement, and other public agencies to coordinate services and resources to contribute to safer communities.

Vision

Successful Youth, Strong Leaders, Safer Communities

DJS Goals

- 1. Improve positive outcomes for justice-involved youth.
- 2. Only use incarceration when necessary for public safety.
- 3. Keep committed and detained youth safe while delivering services to meet youth needs.
- 4. Ensure a continuum of care for justice-involved youth that is age- and developmentally appropriate.
- 5. Build, value, and retain a diverse, competent, and professional workforce.
- 6. Enhance the quality, availability, and use of technology to improve services for staff, youth, and families.

DJS Values

- The safety of the citizens of Maryland and the fair, safe, and humane treatment for all youth in our care
- The families, communities, stakeholders, and staff who support positive change in our youth
- The experience, expertise, diversity, and integrity of our staff
- Fairness and cultural competence regardless of race, ethnicity, gender, sexual identity, or religion
- Creating opportunities for youth and families to promote positive growth and development
- A community-based approach with the least restrictive appropriate interventions
- Continuous improvement and learning in all individuals
- Excellence, innovation, and quality practices based on data and research
- Change for the growth opportunities it brings
- Accountability
- Collaboration and teamwork

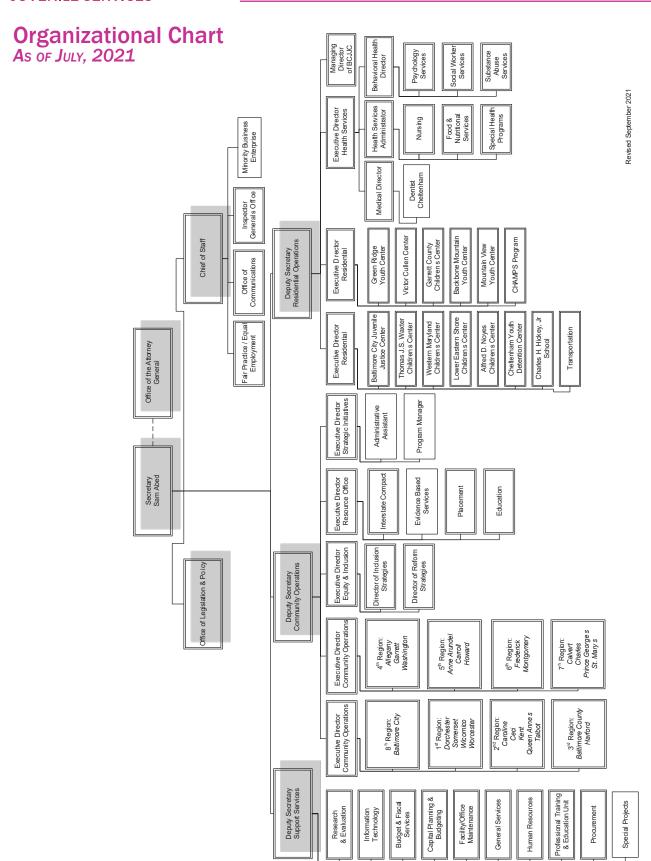

Re-Entry Strategic Plan Goals

The Department's Strategic Re-Entry Plan was developed and implemented in FY 2016 in collaboration with agency stakeholders. Representatives from the Judiciary, Office of the Public Defender, State's Attorney's Office, service providers, the advocacy community, and many levels of DJS staff were all included. The plan provides a framework of goals, objectives, performance measures, and strategic activities to ensure that youth released from committed placement can successfully transition to life in their home communities. Key plan objectives focus on transition planning, family engagement, school re-enrollment, and connecting youth to community service providers and work opportunities. Many of the planned initiatives have been implemented including the following: creating regional reentry specialist and family engagement positions, ensuring comprehensive discharge planning through the use of checklists, collecting key performance data both prior to and after release, and using performance reports to ensure accountability and measure success.

- Goal 1: Reduce recidivism by providing supervision to all youth returning home from committed care.
- Goal 2: Engage families of committed youth at all key case planning decision points.
- Goal 3: Connect all committed youth needing educational services to local education resources.
- Goal 4: Connect all youth to local employment services and resources.
- Goal 5: Connect all youth in need of behavioral or somatic health services to local resources to provide continuity of care.

For a detailed description of the DJS COVID-19 response and reforms see page vi.

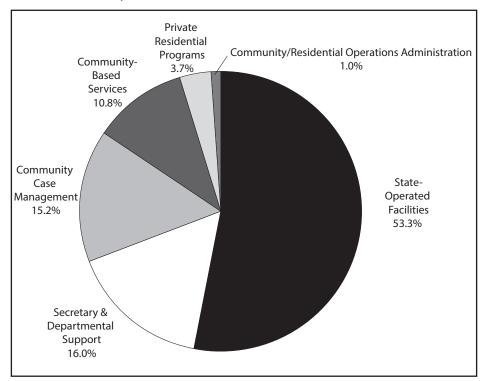

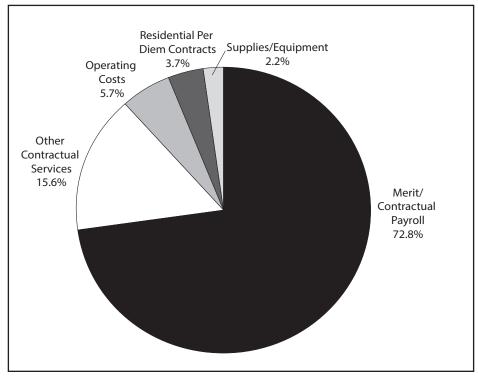

DJS Operating Expenditures, FY 2021

During the fiscal year ending June 30, 2021, the Department expended a total of $255.0 million. The first pie chart reflects the major cost centers for which these funds were expended, and the second shows the expenditures by major object group. See Appendices D and E for additional information on facility costs.

Percentages may not add to 100% due to rounding.

Judge George B. Rasin: A Champion for Maryland's Children

George Rasin as a child in the late-1920's

Throughout his life, George B. Rasin worked tirelessly to build a better world for youth and families in Maryland. This was no more apparent than his passion to improve the juvenile justice system. Appointed to the Circuit Court of Kent County in 1960 as the youngest circuit court judge at the time, Judge Rasin's work laid the foundations of today's juvenile justice system in Maryland. Even in his later years, Judge Rasin continued to advocate for his vision that a separate and specialized system of justice for youth benefits not only the youth involved in the system but all of society.

In the first half of the 20th century, youth accused of wrong-doing in Maryland were addressed informally by the Department of Public Welfare and/or a local justice of the peace. The first juvenile court in Maryland was created by the General Assembly in 1943 in Baltimore City. Over the course of the next two decades, juvenile courts spread to all of the counties in Maryland with jurisdiction over young people up to age 18. In the landmark case of "In Re Gault," the Supreme Court held that youth deserved full constitutional protections in juvenile court. Despite these major court reforms, youth in the juvenile justice system lacked consistent access to support and services throughout the State.

In 1963, Judge Rasin was appointed to serve on the State Advisory Council on Child Welfare ("Council"). The Council focused on how Maryland's system of juvenile justice had no standard practices and procedures that applied consistently throughout the State. In essence, Maryland lacked a single administrative agency outside of the juvenile courts that could uniformly manage, supervise, and support youth in the juvenile system.

In 1964 and 1965, Judge Rasin as the Chair of the Legislative Council Committee on Juvenile Courts ("Committee") sought to convince the General Assembly that Maryland's juvenile justice system needed significant reforms. In 1967, the "Rasin Report" issued by the Committee led to the passage of legislation that created the Department of Juvenile Services. The new agency would have authority over State-operated detention and treatment facilities and would manage activities such as probation and supervision in the community.

The creation of the Department of Juvenile Services, which officially began its operations in 1969, was a major success. But Judge Rasin, fueled by his passion, County.

continued his efforts to reform juvenile justice in Maryland and beyond. He served as the first Chair of the State Advisory Board for Juvenile Services and later chaired the Commission on Youth Offenders in 1970. Judge Rasin also chaired the Juvenile Justice Advisory Council for 14 years. Under Judge Rasin's leadership, the JJAC allocated federal funds to numerous delinquency prevention and treatment programs to benefit youth in Maryland. Judge Rasin's expertise in both criminal and juvenile justice garnered national attention as he was named to the President's Commission on Crime in the late 1960's. That Commission later created the federal Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency, which continues today as the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention.

After a distinguished career on the bench, Judge Rasin retired in 1987, although he continued to serve in a limited capacity as a settlement judge until 2006. Even in his semi-retirement and later years, Judge Rasin never stopped being an advocate for youth in the juvenile justice system. During the 1990's when policy makers both in Maryland and United States began to take a more punitive approach with adult and youth offenders, Judge Rasin spoke out in opposition. In a Kent County News newspaper article, Judge Rasin lamented that by placing juvenile offenders with adult criminals in jail settings, juveniles would be at high risk for being abused and assaulted. He concluded that those policies were "'taking us back to the Dark Ages of prison policy.'" Judge Rasin continued to be a fierce advocate for youth for the remainder of his life.

George Rasin died on December 23, 2011 at the age of 94. He was a World War II veteran, distinguished attorney and judge, father, grandfather and a lifelong champion for Maryland's youth. The existence of the Department of Juvenile Services represents a part of the amazing legacy of Judge Rasin and his work to improve the juvenile justice system in Maryland. Irrespective of the political climate, Judge Rasin never wavered in his vision of a juvenile justice system that was uniquely focused on improving the lives of youth and, ultimately, benefiting all of society. Today, DJS carries the legacy of Judge Rasin forward with its vision that embodies his ideals: "Successful Youth. Strong Leaders. Safer Communities." In every youth and family served by DJS, Judge Rasin's incredible legacy lives on.

DJS would like to thank Judge Gary Bair and Judge Rasin's daughter, Judge Gale Rasin, for their respective contributions to this tribute.

Juvenile Justice in Maryland - A Historical Evolution

1800s

- 1830: Maryland Legislature passed "An Act to Establish a House of Refuge for Juvenile Delinquents" that created for the first time an authority to provide "troubled children" with homes, education, and job training.
- 1850: House of Refuge opened.
- 1850-1882: Maryland built four "reform schools" for young people, governed by private boards and segregated by race and sex.
- 1866: Maryland Industrial School for Girls opened, operated under various names, finally as the Montrose School, and closed in 1988.
- 1870: House of Reformation & Instruction for Colored Children opened. It operated under various names, was renamed to the Cheltenham Youth Facility in 1992 and became Cheltenham Youth Detention Center in 2016.
- 1882: Industrial Home for Colored Girls opened. It merged with Montrose School for Girls in 1962.

1910-1918

House of Refuge (opened in 1850) became Maryland School for Boys (1910) and in 1918 became the Maryland Training School for Boys.

1922

State Department of Education operated the training schools.

1943

· State Department of Public Welfare, Bureau of Child Welfare, Division of Institutions operated the training schools.

1960s

- 1966-1969: State Department of Juvenile Services became the central coordinating agency for juvenile investigation, probation and aftercare services, and for State juvenile, diagnostic, training, detention, and rehabilitation institutions.
- 1967: State Department of Juvenile Services assumed administrative responsibilities for all State children's centers and boys' forestry camps.
- 1968: Patterson House (Group Home for Girls) opened. It closed in 1992.
- 1969: Department of Health and Mental Hygiene organized the Juvenile Services Administration to administer all schools, youth detention centers, forestry camps, and probation/aftercare programs.

1970s

- 1970: Alfred D. Noyes Children's Center opened in Montgomery County.
- 1972: Group Home for Boys opened; it became the William Donald Schaefer House in 1992. It closed in 2016.
- 1972: Maryland Youth Residence Center (MYRC) opened. It closed in 2007.

1980s

- 1982: J. DeWeese Carter Center opened.
- 1985: Maryland Training School for Boys became the Charles H. Hickey, Jr. School (CHHS).
- 1987: Juvenile Services Administration became an independent agency.
- 1988: The Montrose School closed.
- 1989: The Department of Juvenile Services became a cabinet-level department.

1990s

- 1992: Victor Cullen Academy, which was a former tuberculosis sanatorium, opened.
- 1992: Boys' Village of Maryland was renamed to Cheltenham Youth Facility (CYF).
- 1999: In November, DJS replaced its existing mainframe application, Information System for Youth Services (ISYS), with a client-server system referred to as the Automated Statewide System of Information Support Tools (ASSIST).

- Victor Cullen Academy closed. (It reopened as the Victor Cullen Center in 2007.)
- HB 1081 Required the establishment of a community detention program.
- HB 1011 Required the Department to operate the Baltimore City Juvenile Justice Center (BCJJC) as a centralized regional juvenile justice intake, assessment, court, and detention facility for Baltimore City and specified the powers and duties related to the Center.
- HB 962 Authorized the juvenile court to adopt a treatment service plan recommended by the Department in making a disposition on a specified petition, and required DJS to ensure that a plan adopted by the court was implemented within 25 days after disposition.

2003

- Baltimore City Juvenile Justice Center opened in October.
- Under Education Article §22-305, the Maryland State Department of Education (MSDE) began to assume responsibility for educating youth in DJS facilities.

2004

- Day/Evening Reporting Center in Baltimore City opened in December.
- SB 767 Required a child discharged from a committed residential placement to receive step-down aftercare according to specified parameters.

- Charles H. Hickey, Jr. School Committed and Impact Programs closed in July.
- HB 1339 Established a Child in Need of Supervision Pilot Program in Baltimore City and County.

2007

- Victor Cullen Center reopened in July.
- Maryland Youth Residence Center closed in October.
- SB 359 Reorganization and Regionalization required DJS to serve youth with specified programming that delivered services on a regional basis.

2008

- Group Home Reform Keeping Maryland Youth in Maryland Per Diem Reduction Initiative.
- Violence Prevention Initiative (VPI) began in Baltimore City in January and statewide in November.
- Day/Evening Reporting Center opened in Prince George's County in November.
- SB 742 Provided that all contracted residential child care programs must post a "Residents' Bill of Rights" in the facility and provide residents and their parents/guardians a handbook of the policies of the provider.

2009

- Collaboration with Operation Safe Kids (OSK) to serve VPI youth in Baltimore City and Prince George's County.
- Silver Oak Academy opened as a private provider serving only DJS youth.

- Child Safety Net Dashboard launched in February.
- HB 1382 Allowed DJS to share juvenile information and collaborate with juvenile justice agencies in the District of Columbia and Virginia.

- SB 62 Authorized the State Department of Education and the Department of Juvenile Services to share educational records when necessary to ensure the appropriate delivery of services.
- HB 1190 Expanded the Child in Need of Supervision Pilot Program to include Cecil, Montgomery, and Prince George's Counties.
- The committed female population moved from Thomas J.S. Waxter Facility to J. DeWeese Carter Center in November.

- SB 245 Allowed DJS to begin to develop a continuum of care by granting the agency the ability to move youth between committed placements.
- Central Review Committee was formed to implement the terms of SB 245 and commenced its operation in July. Legislation expired in 2016, but the committee maintained the function of reviewing cases.
- The Tier I Human Sex Trafficking Screening Tool was adopted at the Thomas J.S. Waxter Children's Center in March to screen for victims of human sex trafficking and was expanded to the Alfred D. Noyes Children's Center in December.

- HB 245 Expanded the Department's ability to share juvenile information and collaborate with juvenile justice agencies in Delaware, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia.
- MSDE completed assumption of responsibility for educating youth in all DJS facilities.
- Under-13 (U-13) Initiative commenced in Baltimore City in May.
- DJS employees received training on recognizing the signs of human sex trafficking victimization among youth involved in the juvenile justice system.

2014

- The Department began screening for victims of human sex trafficking at the Charles H. Hickey, Jr. School in March.
- The U-13 Initiative expanded to Prince George's County in May.

- Crossover Youth Practice Model (CYPM) Initiative began in Prince George's County in April with the intention of expanding statewide over a multi-year implementation.
- Accountability Incentives Management (AIM) DJS Graduated Responses Initiative was implemented statewide in July.
- SB 172 Required eligible youth who were charged as adults and required detention to be held in juvenile detention facilities.

- DJS Re-entry Strategic Plan was approved in January.
- Offices of Family Engagement and Equity and Systems Reform were created in February.
- William Donald Schaefer House was closed on May 26, 2016.
- VPI ended at the close of FY 2016.
- On November 17, 2016 the new Cheltenham Youth Detention Center opened with a capacity of 72 beds, replacing the 115-bed Cheltenham Youth Facility.
- Federal Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA) audits were completed, and all DJS-operated facilities were found 100% compliant with standards.

Behavioral Health Diversion Initiative (BHDI) pilot was implemented in Baltimore City and Wicomico County.

2018

- Positive Behavior Interventions and Supports (PBIS) was implemented in DJS committed facilities in January. The CHALLENGE behavioral management program was modified to be consistent with PBIS principles and renamed to STARR.
- Family Peer Support Program was implemented in September in Baltimore City and Prince George's, Baltimore, Anne Arundel, and Wicomico Counties to link youth and families involved in the juvenile justice system to community resources.
- After several months of construction, Savage Mountain Youth Center reopened as a hardware secure facility with enhanced educational and therapeutic programming.
- DIS began screening for victims of human sex trafficking at Baltimore City Juvenile Justice Center and Cheltenham Youth Detention Center.

2019

- American Correctional Association (ACA) national accreditation was awarded to Victor Cullen Center on January 12 and J. DeWeese Carter Center on August 3.
- HB 606 Established the Juvenile Justice Reform Council for two years.
- SB 704 Added DJS data and research and evaluation opportunities to the Maryland Longitudinal Data System.

2020

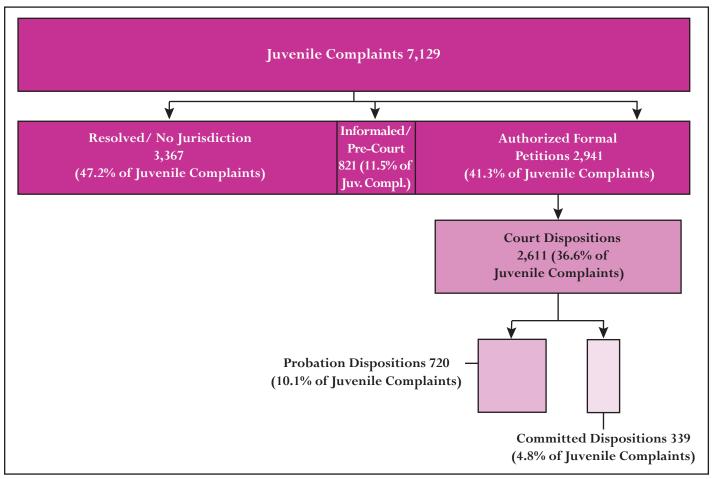

- J. DeWeese Carter Youth Facility for females was closed on June 30, 2020. The population was moved to the new Mountain View program for females on the grounds of Backbone Mountain Youth Center. Mountain View officially opened on June 19, 2020.
- Meadow Mountain Youth Center closed on June 30, 2020.
- Savage Mountain Youth Center was renamed Garrett Children's Center on June 3, 2020.
- COVID-19 Overview (see pages vi-vii for additional COVID information):
 - Governor Hogan declared a state of emergency and the existence of a catastrophic health emergency on March 3, 2020.
 - Governor Hogan moved Maryland to Elevated Level 2 pandemic response, which included telework for state employees on March 12, 2020.
 - On March 14, 2020, Savage Mountain Youth Center closed, youth were moved to Victor Cullen Center, and staff were reassigned to Victor Cullen and other youth centers. Savage Mountain Youth Center reopened in June under new name (noted above).
 - On March 16, 2020, Maryland courts suspended normal operations, with courthouses closed to the public and juvenile court operations limited to detention hearings and certain emergency matters.
 - On March 20, 2020 J. De Weese Carter Center temporarily closed, and youth were moved to the Lower Eastern Shore Children's Center. Carter Center was reopened in May (prior to its permanent closure on June 30, 2020 as noted above).
 - On June 5, 2020, the courts entered the first phase of a gradual return to full operations. This initial step added arrangements, hearings without witnesses, treatment plan reviews, and non-contested hearings to the list of authorized juvenile court matters. Contested matters including adjudications and transfer/waiver hearings resumed on July 20, with the juvenile court reaching fully operational status on August 31.

- The Juvenile Justice Reform Council submitted its report to the Governor and General Assembly in January, and authorization was extended through June, 2022.
- COVID-19 vaccination clinics were held for staff and eligible youth.
- SB 497- Transferred the responsibility of implementing educational programming from the Maryland State Department of Education (MSDE) to the Juvenile Services Education Board within DJS.
- DJS realigned its regional community structure to directly align with the Maryland Judicial Circuits, moving from six to eight operational regions on July 1, 2021.
- The Department participated in a Length Of Stay (LOS) Policy Academy, where national experts and practitioners worked to develop clear policies to link risk, treatment dosage, and length of stay for committed youth.

Flow of FY 2021 Case Referrals*

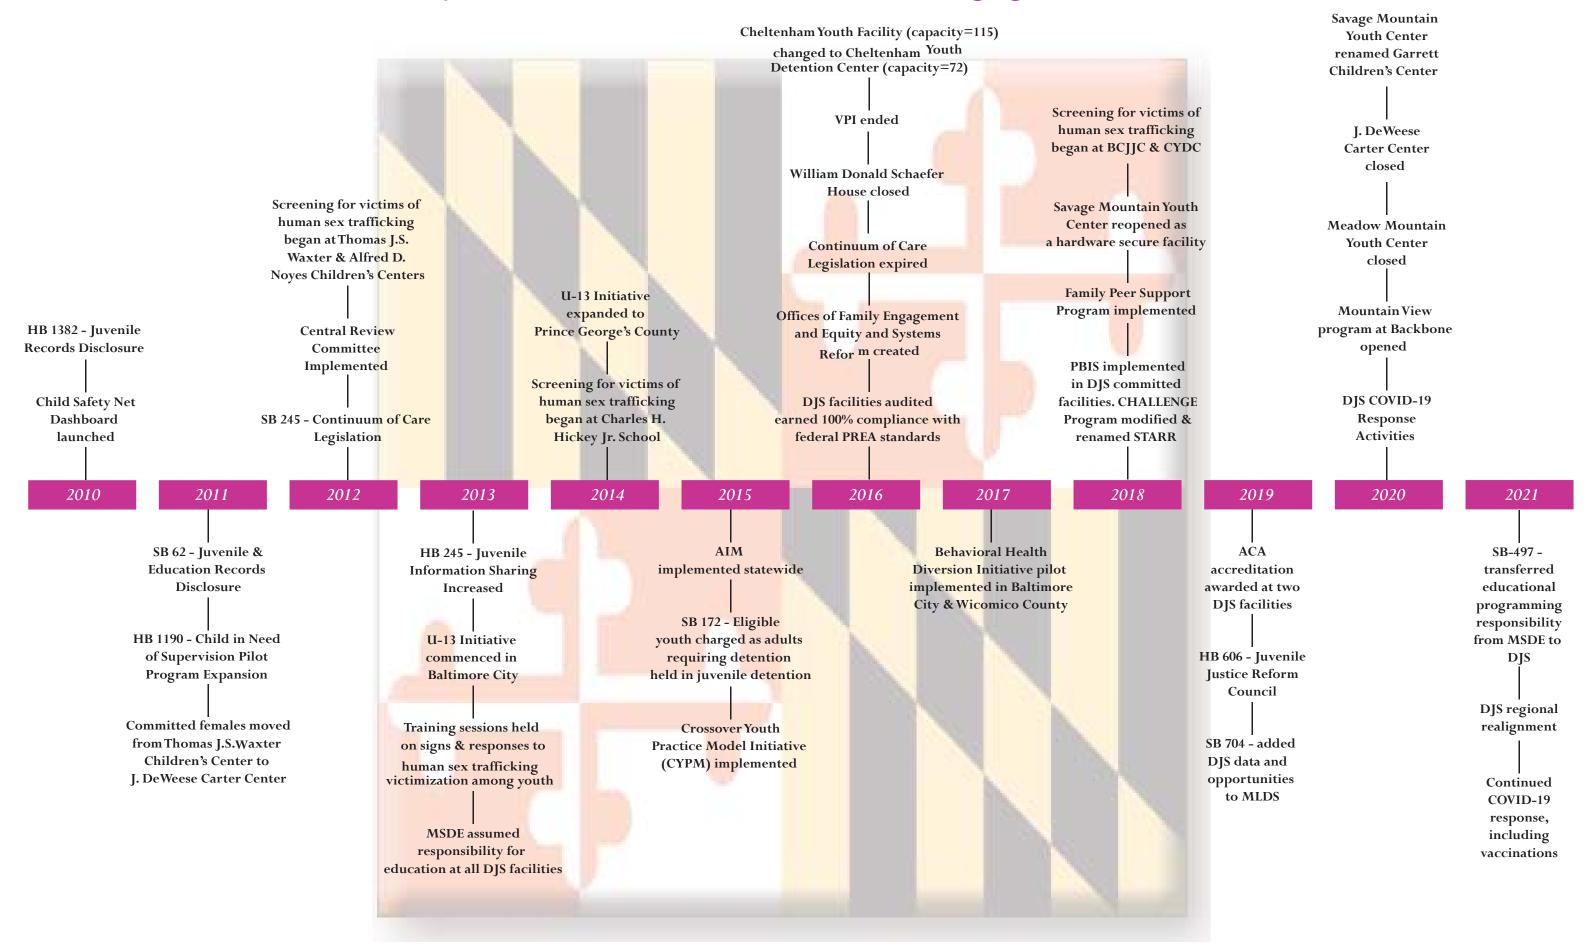

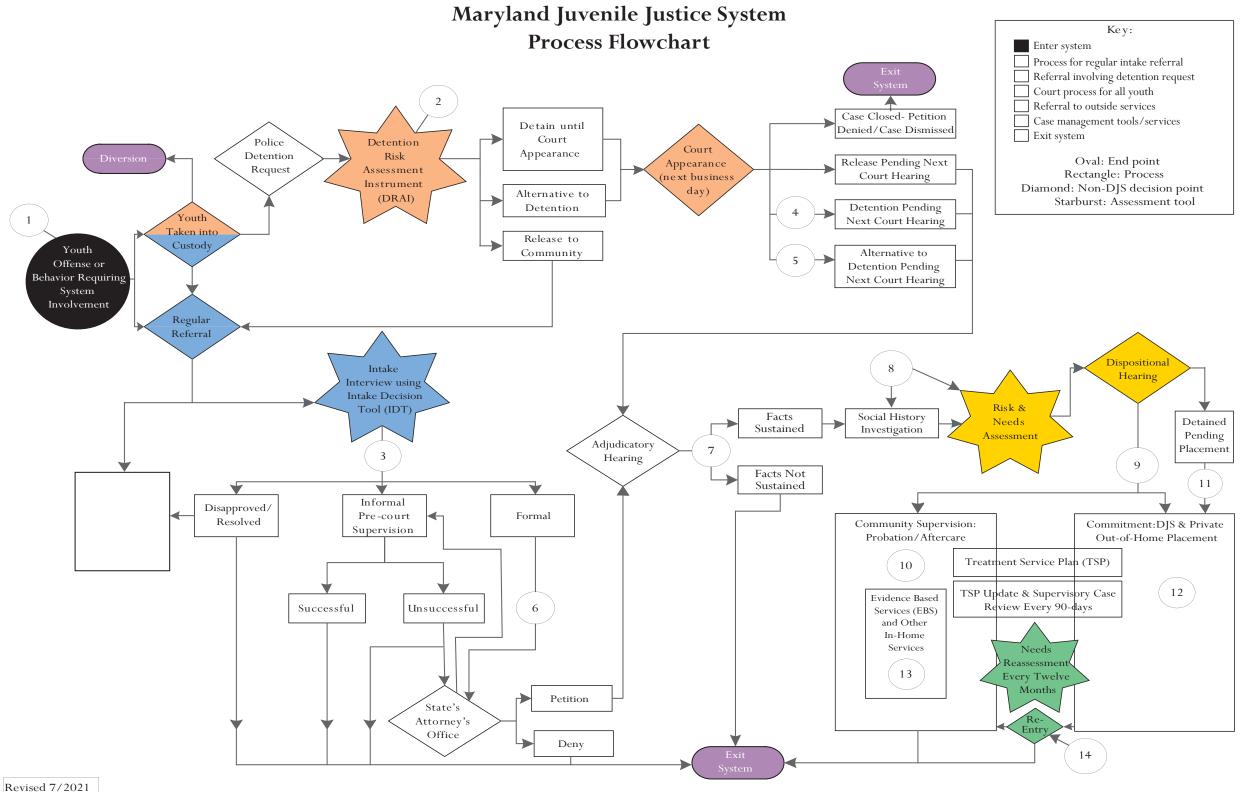

In FY 2021:

- There were a total of 7,129 juvenile complaints processed by DJS.
 - 41.3% (2,941) of those juvenile complaints were referred to the State's Attorney for the authorization of a formal petition (as opposed to being resolved at intake or youth receiving pre-court supervision).
- Of the 2,941 juvenile complaints referred to the State's Attorney, 88.8% (2,611) were petitioned and resulted in a court disposition. The remaining 11.2% includes 7.6% not petitioned (223), 3.2% denied by State's Attorney (95), 0.4% initial petition withdrawn (12).
- Of the 2,611 court dispositions:
 - 21.3% (555) were pending disposition as of October 2021.
 - 27.6% (720) received probation and 13.0% (339) were committed to DJS.
 - The remaining 38.2% (997) included stet, jurisdiction waived to adult court, dismissed, closed, nolle prosequi, services not ordered, committed to other agency or "other". (See Intake & Community Supervision, Case Forwarding Decision and Court Action table for more detail.)
- Of the 339 committed court dispositions, there were 74.0% (251) committed admissions (158 distinct youth). The remaining 26.0% (88) include community commitments and youth who had already been in a committed placement prior to the new intake.
 - Of the 251 committed admissions, 43.8% (110) were placed into DJS-operated facilities, while 56.2% (141) were placed into non-DJS operated facilities.
 - Of the 141 committed admissions to non-DIS operated facilities:
 - 61.7% (87) were group home admissions (including ICFA and Silver Oak Academy) and 31.9% (45) were RTC admissions.
 - The remaining 6.4% (9) were out-of-state admissions.

^{*} Many FY 2021 cases were pending court action at the time of final data collection for this Data Resource Guide.

Department of Juvenile Services Historical Evolution Highlights Since 2010

STEPS IN THE JUVENILE JUSTICE SYSTEM (SEE PROCESS FLOWCHART)

- 1. Youth can be referred to DJS by law enforcement, schools, citizens, and parents. Some police departments run diversion programs, and only those youth who fail out of the program would be referred to DJS. Youth may also be apprehended by law enforcement agencies (on a writ or warrant) for failing to appear in court or violating the conditions of supervision while in an alternative to detention program, for example.
- 2. If requested by law enforcement, DJS makes an emergency detention decision to determine if a youth requires secure detention until the next court day. This decision is guided by the Detention Risk Assessment Instrument (DRAI).
- 3. Guided by the Intake Decision Tool (IDT), the intake complaint is assessed by an intake officer, who has statutory authority to determine how the case should be handled. The options are:
 - Disapprove as legally insufficient refer to services as appropriate;
 - Resolve, when it is determined that furthering the case would be disadvantageous to the interests of the youth and to public safety. Refer to services as appropriate;
 - Enter into a pre-court supervision agreement where the family agrees to certain conditions, including participation in treatment services as appropriate, without court involvement. This is the main DJS court diversion program; or
 - Formally authorize the State's Attorney to petition the juvenile court for a hearing.
- 4. At the detention hearing, the juvenile court determines if detention is required until the adjudicatory or dispositional hearing. Youth may also be detained directly by the juvenile court in cases where the youth is presented during court hours, either on a new charge, a writ or warrant, or due to a violation or sanction of a supervision order (probation, community detention, drug court, etc.). DJS operates all secure juvenile detention centers.
- 5. Youth who present a lower risk may also be supervised in programs providing alternatives to secure detention. These programs ensure that the youth is available to attend the adjudicatory hearing. Youth must comply with certain restrictions, which may include house arrest, electronic monitoring, or day and/or evening reporting centers. Structured shelter is also used for cases where the youth cannot return home after arrest but otherwise represents a lower risk.
- 6. DJS formally authorizes the State's Attorney to petition the juvenile court. The State's Attorney then reviews the complaint and may dismiss it, file a petition to the juvenile court, or return the case to DJS Intake for pre-court diversion.

- 7. At the adjudicatory hearing (a fact-finding hearing), the juvenile court determines the outcome of the petitioned charges, which can be sustained or not sustained.
- 8. While a youth is awaiting disposition and/or supervision or placement, DJS conducts a series of assessments and investigations which will guide the DJS recommendation to the court on how the case should be handled.
- 9. For cases where a charge is sustained, a disposition hearing is held to determine if the youth is delinquent. If the youth is found delinquent, the court determines whether the youth requires DJS supervision and treatment under a probation order or a commitment order. A commitment order usually indicates an out-of-home placement.
- 10. Youth with a court-ordered disposition of probation receive supervision and services while they reside at home. Supervision intensity varies depending on the risk level of youth. Standard community supervision levels include low, moderate, high, and intensive supervision.
- 11. Youth with a court-ordered disposition of commitment who require placement in an out-of-home program may continue to wait in detention (pending placement) until an appropriate placement becomes available.
- 12. Youth who are committed to an out-of-home placement may be placed in a broad variety of programs (state-run or private, secure or non-secure) depending on the risk level and treatment needs of the youth.
- 13. DJS has committed diversion programs for youth who might otherwise be placed out of home. These in-home programs provide services and treatment to the youth and family, and include Functional Family Therapy (FFT), Multisystemic Therapy (MST), and Family Centered Treatment (FCT).
- 14. Youth returning home from a committed placement are supervised on aftercare by DJS case managers who ensure that youth are connected in the community with required services including education, employment, and health services.

Professional Training and Education Unit (PTEU)

The PTEU supports DJS by providing in-person and virtual training opportunities for staff to enhance their skills so that they are well equipped to deliver services to youth in juvenile justice settings effectively. The PTEU contributes to the agency's goal to build, value, and retain a diverse, competent, and professional workforce. PTEU delivers training for staff at all levels of the agency, including Entry LevelTraining (ELT) for its newest employees, professional development for existing staff, as well as supervisor and management training for its emerging leaders. Training programs are designed to provide learning environments that encourage upward mobility within the Department.

The PTEU Certification Unit is specialized in and familiar with the various certification processes under the Maryland Police and Correctional Training Commissions (MPCTC) and has a comprehensive understanding of the Code of Maryland Regulations (COMAR) as well as American Correctional Association (ACA) training practices and performance-based standards. The Certification Unit ensures that all mandated DJS employees acquire and retain required certifications, tracks instructor certifications, maintains training records, and plays a critical role in the audit process to ensure the Department's compliance with COMAR, MPCTC, and ACA requirements.

The Entry LevelTraining Academy (ELT) is the first training experience for mandated DJS employees. This 5-week program includes a 12-hour grammar class taught by Carroll Community College that awards five college credits to students who successfully complete ELT. This provides a good foundation to support and encourage staff to pursue career aspirations with higher education.

On-the-Job Training (OJT) provides 90 hours of personal coaching and hands-on learning experiences from experienced staff after ELT is successfully completed. Through OJT, staff build confidence and proficiency in their ability to perform their job duties.

In-service Training offers annual professional development opportunities that enhance staff knowledge, skills, and abilities while ensuring that mandated staff maintain their MPCTC certification to work directly with youth. Through in-service training, staff also receive special certifications in Crisis Prevention Management (CPM), First Aid/CPR, and Youth Mental Health First Aid (YMHFA).

Beginning in FY 2022, the Supervisor Training Program is taking on a new format. PTEU partnered with Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU) Performance Management Group to develop a three-tiered training curriculum:

- Tier 1 Aspiring Supervisor Program is designed for staff that do not currently supervise others but desire to build skills to become a supervisor.
- Tier 2 First Line Supervisor Training (FLST) is for staff that are promoted or hired into a supervisor position and fulfills the COMAR requirement of completion within one year of entering this position.
- Tier 3 Emerging Leaders Program fills the gap in training between FLST and First Line Administrator Training (FLAT). FLAT is also a COMAR requirement for any staff that is promoted or hired into an administrator position and must be completed within one year of starting the position.

Training highlights during FY 2021:

• PTEU added a Curriculum Team within its Certification Unit and developed a streamlined curriculum request form to track all requests to determine the relevance of the request. This will help improve the Department's training offerings and its instructional activities and practices in order to increase participant engagement in the learning process. The development of curriculum is a multistep, ongoing, and cyclical process that progresses from conducting an analysis, to designing and implementing a program, and then finally to evaluating the program for effectiveness. PTEU sees curriculum development as a participatory process utilizing subject matter experts (SMEs), Curriculum Design and Development Teams (CDDTs), and a project team charter to help ensure agreement of both goals and processes in reviewing and/or developing curriculums.

- The PTEU continues its seven-year partnership with the Mental Health Association of Maryland to offer the 3-year certification course for Youth Mental Health First Aid (YMHFA) and Adult Mental Health First Aid (AMHFA), which prepares staff to be the first responders of mental health crises in DJS facilities and community offices. To determine the effectiveness of this initiative, DJS surveyed its staff in 2017. Staff who responded to the survey noted using these techniques in a situation that was growing into a crisis 56% of the time as well as during a crisis situation 25% of the time. Many staff noted using YMHFA in their personal lives as well as in work including responding to individuals who were actively suicidal. The results of the survey were published in 2020 in the Juvenile and Family Court Journal 71, No. 1.
- Collaborating with the Behavioral Health (BH) Unit allows the PTEU to bring cutting edge behavioral management programs to DJS.
 For 2021, PTEU and BH teamed up to provide a new 16-hour training initiative for 2021 Think Trauma: A Training for Working with Justice Involved Youth, while continuing to support implementation of Trauma-Informed Care (TIC), Positive Behavioral Interventions & Supports (PBIS), CHALLENGE and STARR training, and the Dialectical Behavior Therapy (DBT) program.

Section I: Overview 19

20 Section I: Overview

Introduction to Intake and Community Supervision

The Department provides a continuum of services to youth in the community across multiple stages of the juvenile justice system. Youth enter the system at the point of intake. At this stage, DJS intake officers receive complaints from persons or agencies (e.g. private citizens, schools, victims, or law enforcement agencies) and assess whether the juvenile court has jurisdiction and whether judicial action is warranted. Community Services staff supervise DJS-involved youth who have been placed on Informal (or Pre-Court) supervision, Community Detention and electronic monitoring (CD/EM), probation, and aftercare supervision. Case management and supervision will be described in more detail below.

Pre-Adjudication Services

The DJS Pre-Adjudication Services unit oversees statewide Intake and Community Detention Operations. The Intake unit is responsible for managing and monitoring a uniform statewide approach for the review of intake complaints, as well as ensuring that appropriate assessments and reviews are conducted and that service referrals are made to promote the best interest of the child and public safety. Community Detention Operations oversees programs that serve as alternatives to secure detention for youth who have allegedly committed a new offense and are pending adjudication. These alternatives to detention (ATD) programs include:

- Community Detention (CD) without monitoring, CD with Electronic Monitoring (EM), or CD with GPS Monitoring
- Evening Reporting Centers (ERC) Baltimore City, PACT Baltimore City, Prince George's County, Montgomery County, and Wicomico County

Reform Efforts

Intake decisions must be fair and equitable, despite the fact that systemic racism, biases, and prejudices can influence which youth are referred to DJS intake. In 2017, the Department began revising its policies and procedures to integrate best practices in the juvenile justice field in conjunction with lessons learned based on data analysis and the experiences of youth who present at DJS intake. Specifically, the Department partnered with the University of Maryland, School of Social Work to develop a validated, objective intake decision tool that would identify a youth's risk of recidivism, strengths, and service needs. This new tool, implemented in July 2020, is intended to ensure fair and equitable decisions that are developmentally appropriate, culturally proficient, and tailored to the risks, needs, and strengths of youth. Throughout the intake process, the focus is on positive youth development (recognizing and building on the strengths and assets of youth) and family engagement (actively involving the youth and family voice in all aspects of case planning) – both of which promote successful outcomes. Supported by the tool, the Department aims to divert youth from court involvement when possible and refer the youth and family to services when needed, including high-risk youth who may be safely supervised by DJS with interventions that reduce the risk of recidivism.

Intake

Intake officers review all delinquent and Child in Need of Supervision (CINS) complaints, citations, referrals for service, and peace order requests. Intake officers determine, within 25 days, whether the juvenile court has jurisdiction, and whether judicial action is in the best interest of the public or the child. DJS intake officers are authorized to either: (a) disapprove a complaint as legally insufficient; (b) resolve the matter at intake with or without services; (c) propose an informal adjustment period (also called pre-court supervision); or (d) authorize the filing of a petition by the State's Attorney's Office. DJS is required

Pre-Adjudication Services Reform Principles:

- Divert youth from court involvement when possible;
- Hold youth accountable for harm to victims and communities;
- Increase access to services and supports that address risk and needs;
- Increase opportunities for positive outcomes in school, workforce, and community;
- Ensure developmentally appropriate decisions;
- Prioritize restorative approaches;
- Foster positive youth development and resiliency;
- · Engage youth and family in case planning; and
- Identify trauma and understand the impact of traumatic experiences.

to forward all felony and handgun violation complaints to the State's Attorney's Office for review. The intake decision-making process may involve an interview with the youth, parent and/or guardian, and where applicable, the victim(s).

The intake decision is guided by the new Intake Decision Tool (see Appendix M). This tool includes a newly validated version of the MCASP Intake Risk Screen, the tool used by the Department to guide intake decisions between 2010 and 2019. The validated risk screen incorporated into the new Intake Decision Tool generates a risk score which measures the risk of reoffending. Importantly, the new Intake Decision Tool collects detailed information on social history factors, e.g., school, use of free time, employment, relationships in the community, and family, that is used to identify service needs and prompt the appropriate service referrals. The new tool also requires that the intake officer consider any aggravating and mitigating factors, as well as any service access considerations that may be barriers to obtaining services.

In addition to assessing the merit of complaints received at intake and making the case forwarding decision, DJS intake officers are responsible for determining whether youth who have been taken into custody require secure detention or may be released to a parent, guardian, or other responsible adult and, if so, under what conditions. Some youth are released to a caregiver without any additional restrictions or conditions. Other youth are released to a caregiver and required to participate in an alternative to detention (ATD) program such as Community Detention, ERC, or a shelter pending their court hearing on the next court date.

Intake officers are directed by statute (Md. Code, Courts and Judicial Proceedings, section 3-8A-15) to authorize detention if deemed necessary to protect the youth or others, or if the youth is deemed likely to leave the jurisdiction of the court. Shelter care may be utilized for youth requiring care, but not in a secure setting. Additionally, shelter care can be utilized if a parent, guardian, or custodian is not available to provide supervision and care until the youth returns to court.

The decision to authorize detention is guided by a decision-making tool called the Detention Risk Assessment Instrument (DRAI). The DRAI is designed to provide an objective assessment of the probability that a youth will reoffend or fail to appear for future court dates. The DRAI was most recently validated in FY 2017 and updated in July 2021 (see Appendix F).

Intake services are provided by the DJS regions during normal working hours (Monday-Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.). The Baltimore City Region provides 24/7 intake services and houses a centralized intake unit at the Baltimore City Juvenile Justice Center, which provides statewide intake services during non-traditional work hours and/or holidays for all regions across the state.

Pre-Adjudication Services – Pre-Court Supervision (Informal Adjustment)

As discussed in the previous section, one option for a case received at DJS intake is to handle the case informally, without involving the juvenile court, through an informal adjustment option called Pre-Court supervision. This is conducted under an agreement executed by the DJS intake officer that stipulates conditions of the supervision period, and requires consent by the youth, parent/guardian, and victim (where applicable). Approval by the State's Attorney's Office is required if the case involves a felony offense. Pre-Court agreements are tailored to the individual circumstances of the case, and may include the payment of restitution, the completion of community service hours, as well as participation in specialized community-based services and counseling or treatment programs such as substance abuse treatment. Agreements are generally in effect for a period of 90 days, however, in some circumstances the period may be extended to 180 days to allow for the youth to participate in a substance abuse or mental health treatment program. If a youth fails to meet the conditions of the agreement, the DJS intake officer may elect to forward the case to the State's Attorney's Office for review.

Pre-Adjudication Services – Community Detention

DJS provides regional Community Detention services, with or without electronic monitoring, typically for youth whose cases have been forwarded to the juvenile court at intake. The program operates 24/7 and serves as the primary ATD. Community Detention allows youth to continue participating in community activities such as school or work, and helps maintain community ties and support systems.

Community Detention supervision includes face-to-face and telephone contacts, as well as random unannounced visits at home, school, and work. The level of supervision depends on the assessed supervision needs of each youth and the court-ordered release conditions. Community Detention Officers (CDOs) are trained to monitor violations of court-ordered release conditions and to report any changes in a youth's home or school situation. CDOs work closely with the youth and family to ensure compliance with the program and intervene in accordance with the Department's graduated responses (AIM) when addressing Community Detention violations. Youth who violate the conditions of release may be withdrawn from the program and placed in secure detention.

The electronic monitoring component provides an additional layer of supervision. Compliance with the program is monitored electronically using an ankle bracelet worn by the youth and a receiver located in the youth's home. All electronic notifications related to the youth's schedule and equipment functionality are received in real time. The Command Center and assigned CDO carefully review the information to ensure that supervision violations receive proper intervention and follow-up. The Command Center, located in Baltimore City, is centrally operated and provides 24/7 staffing.

Post-Adjudication Services

The DJS Community Supervision unit consists of 30 local offices throughout the state that oversee the case management operations for youth under court-ordered probation and aftercare services. Community Services also includes the Resource Units, which assist in facilitating in-home and out-of-home committed treatment services for youth. After adjudication, efforts to divert youth from the deep end of the system focus on community-based treatment rather than out-of-home committed care. When youth are being evaluated for services as part of a pre-disposition social history investigation, or by a Multidisciplinary Assessment Staffing Team (MAST), a community treatment plan is part of the review to ensure that only the most at-risk youth receive residential treatment. After disposition, DJS case managers will regularly review youth's progress and length of stay on probation, in placement, or on aftercare to ensure services are being delivered and are effective in moving the youth towards successful closure. DJS is moving towards a system of continuous case management, where - to the extent possible- a youth's case will be assigned to and managed by the same case manager for the duration of supervision.

MAST is a specialized diagnostic team responsible for assessing youth detained pending court disposition and at risk of placement. The MAST includes a psychologist, social worker or professional counselor, substance abuse counselor, community case manager, detention facility case manager supervisor, resource specialist, and a Maryland State Department of Education (MSDE) representative. Following completion of assessments, a MAST or community staffing meeting is held which includes the participation of youth and family. MAST completes an in-depth review of the case information, and the team develops and submits a report, which includes both security and treatment recommendations, to the juvenile court for consideration at disposition.

Probation

Youth who are adjudicated and found delinquent by the juvenile court may be placed on probation under the supervision of a DJS case management specialist (CMS). Probation is the most frequently used juvenile court disposition. A probation term requires youth to abide by general supervision conditions, as well as any special conditions imposed by the court. At the start of probation supervision (or in some instances, prior to disposition if ordered by the juvenile court), a Social History Investigation and report are completed by the assigned CMS. This report describes the social adjustment and circumstances of the youth and their family. The CMS also completes the MCASP Needs Assessment that includes components of the MCASP Intake Risk Screen, but provides a much broader and more comprehensive assessment of individual risk, needs, and strengths. The MCASP Needs Assessment categorizes youth as having either low, moderate, or high need on each of the following treatment domains (which have been shown to influence risk for reoffending): (a) School; (b) Use of Free Time; (c) Employment; (d) Community Relationships; (e) Family;

(f) Alcohol and Drugs; (g) Mental Health; and (h) Attitudes and Aggression. See Appendix N for a list of MCASP Needs Assessment items.

The CMS uses the Social History Investigation and MCASP Needs Assessment to develop recommendations to the juvenile court and to create a Treatment Service Plan (TSP). A TSP is completed for each youth under court-ordered supervision and includes the recommended supervision level for the youth, specific goals for the youth and family to meet, and a statement of services to be provided to the youth and family. In developing the TSP, input from youth, parents and/or guardians, and service providers (as appropriate) is also solicited.

Aftercare and Re-entry

Aftercare supervision is similar to probation supervision in that the CMS performs many of the same supervisory tasks and relies on the same decision-making tools (e.g., the MCASP Needs Assessment). Aftercare services are provided for youth who have been committed to or released from the custody of DJS for placement outside the home, or for the receipt of in-home services in some jurisdictions. A CMS is assigned to the case upon commitment. Aftercare planning is initiated at commitment, before the youth is placed in a residential program. Plans are guided by risk and needs assessments, are updated according to youth's progress in residential care, and also include identification and monitoring of services needed upon release. Building on services provided in the residential placement, the CMS is also responsible for managing the re-entry process so youth and family are linked to services, and possible continuation of treatment in the community. Youth's adjustment and compliance with any court directives is monitored. Additionally, a variety of programs is available to assist youth returning to the community, including independent living programs, transitional educational services, and employment programs (e.g., job readiness training, career exploration, and vocational training). As a step-down to community supervision, some youth are also monitored with GPS supervision. GPS may also be ordered by the court, or as a graduated response by a case manager for high-risk cases, and for youth on home passes from secure placement.

Accountability Incentives Management (AIM)

Instituted in 2015, the AIM initiative gives DJS case managers a structured system of graduated responses to deter negative behaviors and encourage positive behaviors of youth under court-ordered community supervision. AIM seeks to reduce technical violations of Community Detention, probation, or aftercare supervision by ensuring certain, fair, and immediate responses to youth behavior that promote successful completion of supervision.

Interstate Compact (IC) Unit

The IC unit provides for the cooperative supervision of probation and aftercare youth who move from state to state as well as the return of runaways, absconders, and escapees. A new compact which includes all 50 states was enacted in 2014 forming the Interstate Commission for Juveniles (ICJ). This Commission governs each member state as to the provision of proper supervision or return of delinquent youth and status offenders on probation or aftercare who have absconded, escaped, or run away and, in so doing, have endangered their own safety or the safety of others. It is the responsibility of each member state to provide supervision and services to ICJ cases using the same standards that prevail for its own youth placed on probation or aftercare supervision.

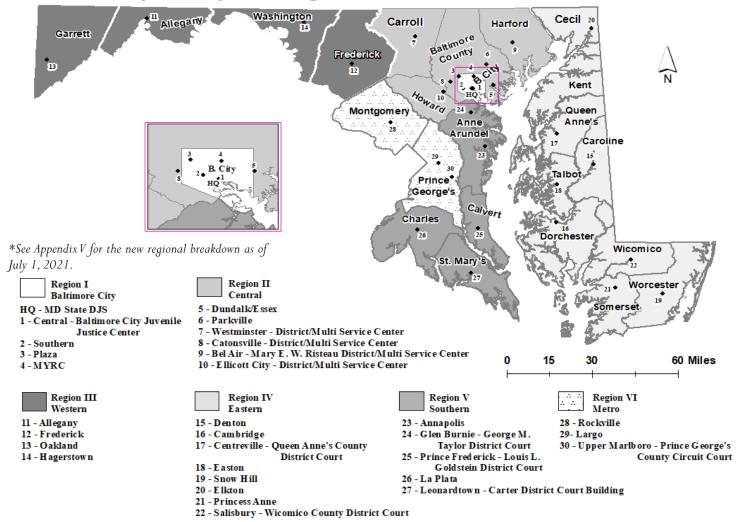

Note to Readers:

Starting in the 2017 DRG, the table "Court Action for Formaled Cases" is organized as follows:

- 1. Like actions are grouped together. For example: "Petition Withdrawn, Denied by SAO, and Non Est" all represent cases that did not proceed to court, and "Dismissed, Closed, Nolle Pros" cases went to court, but did not make it to an adjudicatory decision.
- 2. In cases with more than one result (e.g. Continued then Dismissed), the ultimate action is now shown for all cases, (as of the time of data extraction.) Previously, the first action was shown for most cases, except for Continued/Stet.

Pre-Court Supervision

Pre-court supervision in Maryland is a statewide program that serves to divert youth from formal juvenile court processing. Also referred to as "informal adjustment," it is a way of holding youth accountable for their actions while avoiding formal processing in the courts. A DJS intake officer can offer pre-court supervision when it is determined that the juvenile court has jurisdiction, but it would be in the best interests of the public and the youth to handle the complaint without judicial action. Youth referred for less serious offenses and with a lower risk of recidivism are more likely to be handled informally. Youth with felony offenses can also be referred for Pre-Court upon approval from the States Attorney's Office. A Pre-Court Supervision Agreement is a contract unique to the case that outlines the purpose, proposed length, conditions of behavior, and services to be accessed. The parties agree to participate, and intake staff provides support to ensure that youth and families can access services where applicable. Conditions may include short-term participation in an Evening Reporting Center (ERC) program (for first-time, serious offenders), participation in Multi-Systems Therapy (MST) or Functional Family Therapy (FFT), referrals to Maryland Coalition of Families (MCF) to work with a family peer support specialist, Neighborhood Youth Panels, teen court, paying restitution, completing community service, or specialized substance abuse/mental health counseling or treatment programs. The assigned Intake CMS maintains contacts with the youth, parent/guardian, and service providers to provide support in ensuring progress in meeting the Pre-Court Supervision Agreement terms.

The pre-court supervision period is usually less than 90 days, but may be extended to 180 days if a youth is required to participate in a program. The victim, the youth, and the youth's parent/guardian must all consent to the arrangement. If the victim does not consent, the pre-court supervision term cannot proceed. The case may then be closed or forwarded to the State's Attorney's Office for formal processing; victims may appeal to the State's Attorney if the case is closed. Parties may also withdraw support for the pre-court agreement at any time, though this is rare. If the conditions of the agreement are met, the case is generally closed. If terms are not successfully met, the case may be sent to the State's Attorney for formal processing or closed. All parties to the agreement and the arresting officer are informed about the failure to complete the terms, and the subsequent decision about the case, and all have a right to appeal.

Placement Trends:

- Overall placements to pre-court supervision decreased 71.1% between FY 2019 and FY 2021 and decreased 58.1% from FY 2020 to FY 2021.
- The highest percentage of placements to pre-court supervision came from the Metro Region in FY 2019 and FY 2020 and the Central Region in FY 2021.
- Offense Category (FY 2020-2021):
 - The percentage of Crimes of Violence increased from 9.4% to 13.0%.
 - The percentage of Felonies increased from 8.9% to 17.7%.
 - The percentage of Misdemeanors decreased from 73.0% to 63.7%
 - Misdemeanors comprised nearly two-thirds of all alleged offenses for youth placed on pre-court supervision.
 - See the Terms and Concepts pages in the introduction section for an explanation of Crime of Violence, Felony, and Misdemeanor as the definitions are helpful when examining offense severity.
- Completion Status:
 - Statewide, nearly three-quarters of youth placed on pre-court supervision completed the terms of their agreement.
 - The percentage of successful completions ranged from 40.8% to 100% for counties having more than 10 releases.
- Length of Stay (FY 2021):
 - Half of youth released from pre-court supervision had a LOS of 61-90 days.

^{*}The Very High category was added in FY 2020 after the MCASP Needs Assessment was validated. Pre-validation data (FY 2012-FY 2019) are not directly comparable to FY 2020 due to the reorganization of all categories.

• For committed placements with a completed MCASP, the percentage with a low risk decreased from 14.3% in FY 2012 to 10.4% in FY 2019. During the same period, the percentage with a high risk increased from 45.7% to 65.6%.

Introduction to Detention

DJS operates seven detention facilities across the State to provide temporary and secure custody of youth subject to court jurisdiction. Youth may be detained at various points in the juvenile justice system. The juvenile court may order detention for youth pending a court hearing (preor post-disposition), pending initial placement in a treatment program, or pending placement in a treatment program post-removal. Youth are commonly detained for new complaints alleging delinquent behavior, writs and warrants issued by the court, or violations of alternative to detention (ATD) program conditions. Note that youth pending adult criminal charges may also be held in DJS detention facilitites while the transfer of jurisdiction from adult to juvenile court is being considered (see "Youth Charged as Adults Pending Transfer" on page 130-131).

DETENTION PROCESS

The decision whether to detain a youth is driven primarily by the juvenile court. However, juvenile detention may be authorized by DJS intake officers on a temporary basis at the request of a law enforcement officer or community detention officer. DJS is empowered by statute to detain a youth who either poses a clear risk to themselves/others, or is deemed likely to leave court jurisdiction. This decision is guided by the Detention Risk Assessment Instrument (DRAI) (see Appendix F) and is subject to court review on the next court day. The

Alfred D. Noyes Children's Center hosted a "Rock the Vote" event in preparation for the 2020 presidential election. The youth were educated on both the Republican and Democratic parties' policies, and each unit had two representatives debate their stances

DRAI objectively informs detention decisions by taking into account three factors:

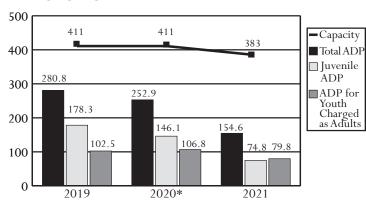

- (1) the assessed risk that a youth will reoffend or will fail to appear for a court hearing, based on known risk factors from the youth's history;
- (2) the seriousness of the current alleged offense; and
- (3) other factors that require DJS to temporarily detain a youth regardless of risk or offense seriousness, including an outstanding writ, warrant, or interstate hold.

Based on these three factors, the DRAI recommends either release, placement in an ATD, or detention. The DRAI is a key tool for the Department to ensure fair and evidence-based decision making regarding the use of secure detention.

DETENTION ADMISSIONS

Each detention facility operates an admissions area 24 hours a day where all youth admitted to detention are processed. An admissions officer interviews youth to collect and verify basic identifying information. The admissions officer also performs a search of the DIS information system, ASSIST, to obtain available information on a youth's delinquency and placement history. A photograph of each youth is taken and included in the case record for identification purposes. The rules of the detention facility, including the grievance procedure, are provided to each youth in the facility handbook. Youth are issued clothing to wear in the facility. Personal clothing is cleaned, catalogued, packaged, and placed in secure storage.

The admissions process includes an initial health screening. It is performed by admissions nursing staff and consists of a review of physical health, mental health, and substance abuse needs. A review of medical history and a physical examination are conducted by a licensed physician or nurse practitioner within seven days of admission. In addition, youth receive preventative care by a dentist or dental trained personnel within 14 calendar days of admission. (See page vi-vii for a description of the Department's response to the COVID-19 crisis, which involves further screening and special processing.)

DETENTION CASE MANAGEMENT

Youth who are detained by the juvenile court are assigned a DJS community case manager and a facility case manager. The community case manager visits the youth in detention, interviews the youth and family, and completes required investigations and/or assessments, e.g., a Social History Investigation or MCASP Needs Assessment (see Appendix N). The facility case manager acts as a liaison with the court, family, community case manager, and treatment service providers while the youth is in detention. The facility case manager also assists youth with understanding facility rules and procedures and the behavior management system upon admission to the facility and answers any questions the youth may have. They facilitate individual meetings, weekly groups, and activities. They monitor youth progress and compliance with the behavior management system and may provide information and input for the Multidisciplinary Assessment Staffing Team meetings.

Services Provided in Detention Facilities

BEHAVIORAL HEALTH SERVICES

DJS Behavioral Health Services (BHS) establishes and implements policies concerning the delivery of mental health, substance abuse, and evidence-based treatment services to youth under DJS supervision. BHS licensed and certified staff counselors and contractors provide complete assessments and necessary services. BHS provides integrated mental health and substance use disorder screening, assessments, and short-term crisis services in DJS detention facilities.

Upon admission to a detention center, each youth is screened by a qualified mental health professional. The screening consists of an interview, the administration of tests as appropriate, and the review of any prior assessments or records (e.g., psychosocial or clinical assessments). If the initial mental health screen reveals mental health concerns, more in-depth assessments or additional services are recommended. These assessments, conducted by psychiatrists or licensed psychologists, examine the emotional, adaptive, and cognitive functioning of detained youth with greater mental health issues.

Additionally, certified addictions counselors screen and assess youth in detention and determine appropriate levels of substance abuse treatment. This information assists case managers in linking youth with appropriate community and residential services. Addictions counselors work closely with the Department's medical director for those youth requiring medication management as a result of their drug addiction.

EDUCATIONAL SERVICES

The Maryland State Department of Education's (MSDE) Juvenile Services Education System (JSES) provides educational programming to youth in DJS detention facilities consistent with the requirements of the Code of Maryland Regulations (COMAR), Title 13A. The program includes instruction in core content subjects, career and technology education, library/media services, life skills, and special education services. Students are pre-tested upon entry to the JSES program to assess baseline academic skills. Teachers use the results to design learning plans for each student, which form the basis for daily instruction. After each 30-day period of enrollment, the student is retested to determine academic gains.

Students in a JSES program can earn credit toward the Maryland High School Diploma while in the care of DJS. Alternatively, some students are able to prepare for and actually take their GED examination while in detention depending on their lengths of stay. DJS Educational Transition Specialists assist youth who are detained for more than five days with re-enrollment in their local school. They obtain records from the facility and forward them to the local school's Pupil Personnel Worker (PPW), Registrar, and to the assigned DJS community case manager. In some counties, the case manager and Education Liaison also assist with this process. The Educational Transition Specialist then follows up with the assigned school for the youth's enrollment date.

On July 1, 2022, the responsibility of implementing educational programming will transfer from MSDE to an independent unit within DJS under the Juvenile Services Education Program.

RECREATIONAL SERVICES

Structured recreation programs are available to all youth in detention. The recreation program provides a variety of activities promoting physical health and wellness. Youth are required to participate in recreational activities for a minimum of one hour per day; however, DJS provides programming opportunities that far exceed this minimum requirement.

Pending Placement

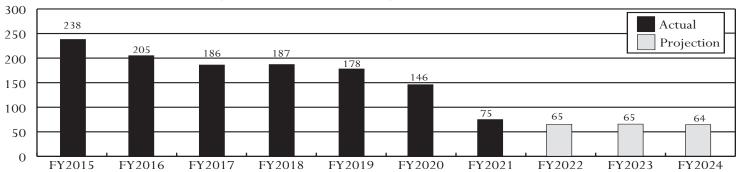

PENDING PLACEMENT (POST-DISPOSITION)

Youth who have been committed to the custody of the Department for residential placement may be placed in detention on a temporary basis by the juvenile court. Youth detained post-disposition are considered to be 'pending placement' as they are waiting to be placed into an out-of-home treatment program for committed youth.

Youth who are pending placement receive the same core services as youth detained prior to disposition, including, but not limited to, educational services, screening, evaluation, and treatment for substance abuse, mental health, and somatic health (including dietary and dental).

JUVENILE DETENTION POPULATION ADP*, HISTORICAL AND PROJECTED, FY 2015-2024

^{*}ADP includes all youth in pre-disposition and post-disposition (pending placement) status, and does not include the youth charged as adults pending transfer population as that is presented separately at the bottom of this page.

ADP is projected to decrease 14.7% between FY 2021 and FY 2024.

Youth receive biweekly visits from their community case manager. Each facility also allows family visitation during the week or on weekends (the visitation schedule varies by facility).

A court review hearing is held in accordance with Md. Code and Judicial Proceedings, 3-8A-15(k) for any youth in detention 25 days after the court has made a disposition. At the hearing, DJS is required to explain the reasons for continued detention. The court will continue to conduct a hearing every 25 days thereafter until a youth has been placed.

During the pending placement period, the community case manager maintains contact with the youth's family and is also responsible for reporting to the juvenile court regarding the youth's placement status. In addition to court review, pending placement cases are reviewed by the Department on a weekly basis at facility management meetings. Regional-level meetings are held on a monthly basis to review placement statistics and identify barriers to placement and ways to expedite the process.

PENDING PLACEMENT AFTER REMOVAL FROM A TREATMENT PROGRAM FOR COMMITTED YOUTH

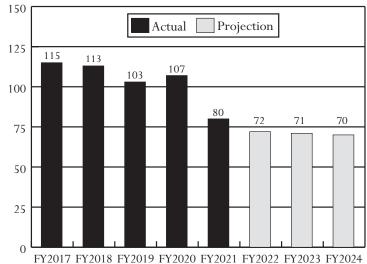

Some youth committed to the custody of the Department cannot be safely maintained in their program and must be removed. Youth removed from a treatment program who require a new committed placement are often placed in detention. Those with a new offense would be considered Pre-Disposition (Pre-D).

While detained pending a new placement, the Department's Central Review Committee (CRC) re-evaluates the youth's case and works to secure acceptance to the most appropriate alternative program. Youth ultimately placed in a DJS-operated program are transferred within 7 days of the CRC decision, provided there is available bed space.

Population Projections

Each year DJS produces a projection of Maryland's detention population using a set of statistical techniques known as time-series forecasting. Time-series forecasting assumes that there is a pattern in the historical values that can be identified. The goal is to define the pattern, understand the short-term and long-term trends, and pinpoint any seasonal fluctuations. Time-series forecasting then utilizes the pattern, trend, and seasonal variation identified in the historical data to project future values. Unless a future change is explicitly accounted for, such models implicitly assume that current policies and practices will continue into the future. Future changes in policies, practices, or other critical factors can impact the future population and often cannot be anticipated. Many factors can have an impact on the number of youth admitted to the State's detention facilities and, thus, on the size of the detention population. Demographic shifts, trends in crime rates, the volume and patterns of arrests, the number and types of incidents referred to the juvenile justice system, and changes in court practices each contribute to changes in the number of youth who are detained.

The projections were generated from all historical data available at the time that they were produced. Projection models were selected based on rigorous statistical testing and the best fit to the historical data. The information is designed to be a tool for policymakers and practitioners and can be useful for discussions pertaining to budgeting, operations, capacity planning, and development of services, including alternatives to detention for Maryland's youth.

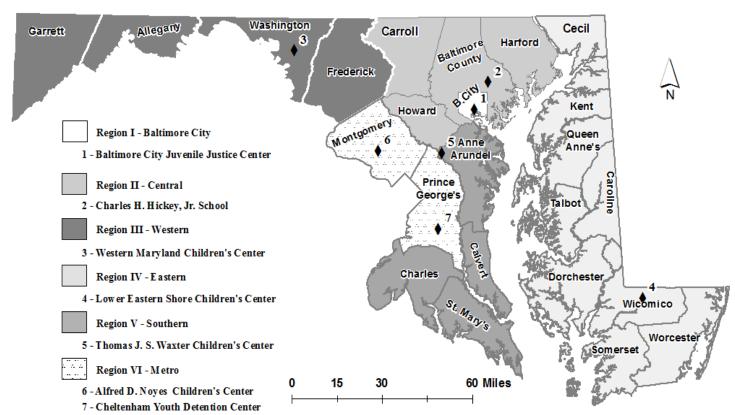

A Note to Readers:

Placements versus Admissions: A placement is based on a decision made by an intake officer or judge to place a youth into detention. An admission occurs when a youth physically enters a facility either through direct placement or through transfer. Therefore, during one placement, a youth may have several admissions, and these counts will not match.

Pages that present statewide-level data will report placements, while facility-specific pages will report admissions. The only exceptions are tables that present data that are collected once upon placement, such as risk level. These will always be reported as placements.

Total Statewide Activity for Detention Centers

Total Capacity: 383 beds

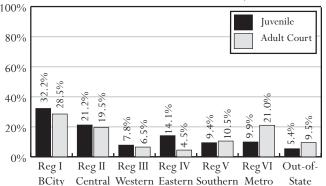

DJS operates seven detention facilities across Maryland. Each facility accommodates youth awaiting juvenile court disposition (Pre-D) and youth committed to DJS by the juvenile court and pending placement in a treatment program (Post-D). The removal population represents youth returned to detention following removal from a committed treatment program, who have no new offenses requiring court processing and who need a new committed placement. Youth with pending adult criminal charges may also be held in DJS detention facilities (see pages 130-131 for more detail). These youth are included in the data presented except for demographic, offense, and risk level tables/charts.

Under Age 13 Statewide Activity for Detention Centers

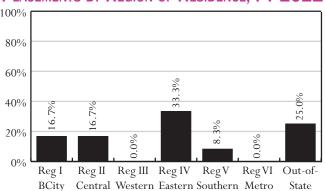

Youth under 13 who are detained by the court represent very few of the youth in DJS detention centers. Rather than placing these youth in a detention facility, DJS most frequently uses an alternative to detention (ATD) with placement at home or in a shelter. However, if a youth must be in a detention center they are housed with youth closest in age and size. If deemed highly vulnerable they may be placed in the infirmary, with one-on-one staff supervision or sent to a smaller facility with a lower population. Wherever placed, youth under 13 receive all the same services as other detained youth. Note: youth under age 13 are not eligible to be charged in adult court.

Youth Charged as Adults Pending Transfer

Youth ages 17 and under who are charged with a crime excluded from juvenile court jurisdiction may be held in adult detention centers pending trial. If ordered by the court, youth charged as adults who are eligible to file for transfer of charges to juvenile court may be held in a secure juvenile detention facility pending a transfer hearing to determine if jurisdiction should remain in the adult court or be transferred to the juvenile court. (Md. Code, Criminal Procedure, §4-202). Although DJS had previously entered into agreements with local criminal justice agencies to house such youth, the statute was amended effective October 1, 2015 requiring a youth charged as adult who is eligible for transfer to the juvenile court to be held in a secure juvenile detention facility pending that transfer decision unless: (1) the youth is released; (2) there is no capacity in the secure juvenile facility; or (3) the court finds that detention in a secure juvenile facility would pose a risk of harm to the child or others, and states the reasons for the finding on the record. Data in this section represent those youth held in DJS detention facilities for the adult court pending a transfer hearing. This section also provides information on youth whose complaints were transferred to the juvenile court, though they may or may not have been detained during the report year.

Alternatives to Detention (ATD)

DJS has a variety of programs designed to safely supervise and monitor youth in the community as an alternative to detention. ATDs include Community Detention (CD) — with or without Electronic/GPS Monitoring (EM) — and DJS-managed Evening Reporting Centers (ERC) serving females and males. In addition, DJS collaborates with private programs to provide additional ERC programming. These ERC programs include the Pre-Adjudication Coordination and Transition Center (PACT) for Baltimore City males, and Lead for Life, Inc., for males in Montgomery and Wicomico counties. Shelter beds may also serve as an ATD in circumstances where release-eligible youth are unable to return home. ATD programs are assigned either by DJS intake staff for the appropriate risk level youth presented for detention (placements must be reviewed by the juvenile court the next court day) or by the juvenile court directly. These alternatives allow youth to remain in the home or a shelter care program and to continue with school or work and maintain community ties, support systems, or alternative care. Youth on ATD supervision are expected to appear for scheduled hearings and not have any new arrests.

Introduction to Treatment Programs for Committed Youth

DJS is committed to selecting the most appropriate out-of-home program for youth who have been committed to the custody of DJS by the juvenile court. The court determines the appropriate level of care for each youth but does not select the specific programs to which the youth are referred. Treatment programs vary based on the services provided, as well as by security level.

DJS has made significant reform efforts in recent years, including an increased focus on several key principles to guide decision making regarding out-of-home placements. These principles are:

- Utilize community-based treatment whenever possible;
- Utilize lengths of stay that maximize treatment benefits;
- Utilize evidence-based programs and programming;
- Prioritize out-of-home placements in Qualified Residential Treatment Programs (QRTP) when available;
- Identify trauma, and provide trauma responsive care and treatment;
- Reduce racial and other systemic biases;
- Utilize a restorative approach by seeking options to repair harm to victims and communities; and
- Foster positive youth development and resiliency.

Beginning in 2020, as part of an organized initiative with national experts and other jurisdictions, DJS began development of a length of stay (LOS) policy for youth receiving treatment in treatment programs. Best practices and evidence-based approaches to treatment were reviewed, and technical assistance provided, including an analysis of DJS LOS data, and current policies and practices. Overarching issues impacting the lengths of stay were identified, including placement recommendations, case planning, treatment delivery and monitoring, procedures for motivating youth and responding to youth's behaviors, enhancing youth and family voice, and reentry planning. The primary goal of this initiative is to ensure Maryland's youth committed to an out-of-home program experience lengths of stay that are fair and equitable; aligned with youth risk and treatment needs; guided by best practices; and informed by youth, family, and

Risk Levels Updated

On July 1, 2019, DJS rolled out an updated MCASP Risk and Needs assessment tool. Based on a validation study conducted by the Institute for Innovation and Implementation at the University of Maryland (https://theinstitute.umaryland.edu), the updated tool better identifies those youth with higher risk of recidivating. Risk is now also categorized into four levels, with a "very high" level added to designate youth at the highest risk, and with the greatest need for intervention.

progress assessment. At this time, policies are being modified to improve practices and restructure operations to augment the focus on treatment. It is anticipated that implementing changes will result in improved outcomes for justice-involved youth, a reduction in recidivism, and increased public safety.

PLACEMENT PROCESS

The DJS placement process is designed to select the most appropriate program and treatment services for youth. The process begins after adjudication with a comprehensive case review of each youth. For youth in the community at the time of adjudication, the staffing is conducted in the local DJS office. For detained youth, a MAST staffing takes place in the detention center (see description below).

Community Staffing: A community staffing meeting is held to bring together key parties responsible for treatment service planning to include parents and/or guardians. At the staffing meeting, all pertinent information is considered, including the current offense(s), delinquency history, social history, MCASP recommended supervision level, MCASP assessment of treatment needs, educational records, any behavioral health and medical assessments, youth and family input and strengths, service access considerations, and the involvement of any other state agency.

Multidisciplinary Assessment Staffing Team (MAST): MAST is a specialized diagnostic team responsible for assessing youth who are detained pending court disposition and are at risk of out-of-home placement. The MAST includes a psychologist, social worker or professional counselor, substance abuse counselor, community case manager, detention facility case manager supervisor, resource specialist, and a Maryland State Department of Education (MSDE) representative. Youth who require more specialized assessments (e.g., a neurological, psycho-sexual, or medical assessment) are referred for evaluation, and the results are presented during a MAST staffing. At the staffing meeting, all pertinent information is considered, including the current offense(s), delinquency history, social history, MCASP recommended supervision level, MCASP assessment of treatment needs, educational records, any behavioral health and medical assessments, youth and family input and strengths, service access considerations, and the involvement of any other state agency.

Referral for Services: Each staffing meeting culminates with recommendations to the juvenile court for program participation and/or treatment services tailored to the circumstances of each youth. After court disposition, DJS refers each case to the recommended program(s) for consideration.

DJS contracts with an array of programs, both in and out of state, to provide treatment services to committed youth. Programs may either accept or reject an applicant based on program eligibility criteria or capacity.

The full range of DJS placement options include: (a) Foster Care Homes (traditional and treatment foster care); (b) Group Homes (general service and therapeutic); (c) Independent Living Programs/Alternative Living Units (often used as a step-down from a more restrictive program placement); (d) Residential Treatment Centers (RTCs) and non-Medicaid Residential Treatment Facilities (out-of-state); (e) DJS-operated and out-of-state staff-secure treatment programs; and (g) hardware-secure treatment programs, both DJS-operated and privately contracted out-of-state.

The Department has established three levels of residential treatment program placements based largely on the level of program restrictiveness (see the figure below). Level I includes all programs where youth reside in a community setting and attend community schools. Level II includes programs where education is provided on-grounds and youth movement is restricted primarily by staff monitoring and supervision. Level III programs provide the highest level of security by augmenting staff supervision with physical attributes of the facility, i.e., locked areas and fences.

Case Reviews: DJS' case management team conducts monthly reviews of all youth under the supervision of the Department to ensure that youth are receiving recommended treatment services and appropriate supervision. Beginning in March 2020, DJS implemented a monthly executive-level case review to further ensure that youth are progressing in programs, receiving needed services while in a program, and being evaluated for court in a timely manner. This is in addition to the already established Central Review Committee process.

Central Review Committee (CRC): The CRC was established by DJS in 2012, after legislation was passed granting DJS the authority to transfer youth to a higher security level without first requesting the court to modify the commitment order. That legislation expired in 2016; however, the CRC continues to conduct weekly case reviews of youth at risk for removal from a treatment program and those who have been removed from a program due to emergent concerns such as safety issues or a significant change in the behavioral, emotional, and/or medical needs of the youth. The Director of Behavioral Health serves as the Chair of the CRC. The CRC directs changes in the provision of services to youth, makes placement transfer recommendations and requests modifications to court orders for those cases requiring increased security.

Services Provided in DJS-Operated Treatment Programs

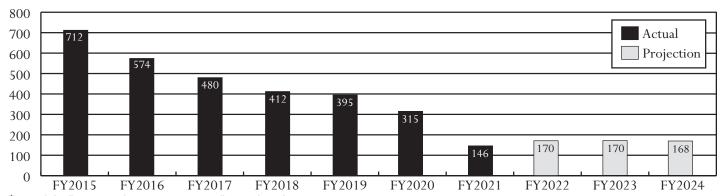

Youth served in a DJS-operated treatment program receive a multitude of services, including behavioral health, somatic health, and educational services.

BEHAVIORAL HEALTH SERVICES

DJS Behavioral Health Services (BHS) provides integrated mental health and substance abuse treatment in DJS-operated treatment programs. Behavioral Health Services include the following: substance abuse services, suicide assessment and prevention, crisis intervention and stabilization, medication evaluation and monitoring, as well as individual, group, and family therapies. All youth receive the TAMAR-Y (Trauma, Addiction, Mental Health, and Recovery — Youth) curriculum, which combines psychoeducation with cognitive behavioral interventions and expressive art therapy. START (Social Skills Training and Aggression Replacement Techniques) is also provided in all treatment programs. Based on Aggressive Replacement Training (ART®), START is an evidence-based cognitive behavioral program.

Trauma Informed Care (TIC): TIC has been implemented in DIS treatment programs since March 2017. The National Association for the States of Mental Health Program Directors (NASMHPD) trained all DJS treatment program staff in a TIC model that was originally developed for the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), a nationally recognized leader in Trauma Informed Care. TIC teaches staff to recognize the signs and symptoms of trauma, as well as common reactions to trauma. It also teaches staff about the impact of trauma on the developing brain, and how it impacts the behaviors, reactions, and lives of youth. Through training with the NASMHPD trauma trainers, DJS staff have developed and implemented specific strategies to help youth address their reactions to trauma triggers, and programs have developed more trauma-informed environments. In 2021, DJS began the process of training all staff in the Think Trauma curriculum which is specifically designed to assist juvenile justice staff in creating a trauma-informed juvenile justice residential setting. This training includes four modules: Trauma and Delinquency; Trauma's Impact on Development; Coping Strategies; and Vicarious Trauma, Organizational Stress, and Self-Care.

Substance Abuse Services: All DJS treatment programs offer Seven Challenges substance abuse treatment, an evidence-based program implemented in 2009. Seven Challenges adopts a decision-making model, encouraging youth to make well-informed decisions by weighing the costs (e.g., physical, psychological, and social harm) and benefits of drug use. All programs provide substance abuse services to youth at the needed American Society of Addiction Medicine (ASAM) level ranging from early intervention to clinically managed medium intensity residential services. DJS is in the process of seeking accreditation through the Council on Accreditation (COA) for all the treatment programs.

Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports (PBIS):

Implemented in all DJS-operated treatment programs (see table on page 153) since January 2018, PBIS is an evidence-based framework that is designed to facilitate the development of pro-social youth behavior and maintain safety and security in the programs. For DJS, the PBIS framework includes a behavior motivation system, STARR, which is grounded in the principles of positive reinforcement and modeling. STARR helps youth learn problem-solving and leadership skills, as well as accept responsibility for their behavior. Program staff are trained to teach and model problem-solving and social skills.

SOMATIC HEALTH

The Somatic Health Services Unit provides comprehensive, quality health care and nutritional services to youth at DJS residential programs. Its mission is to protect, promote, and advance the health of all youth in the care of the Department.

Medical, dental, optometry, and dietary services are provided in an interdisciplinary fashion that is developmentally appropriate for youth. These services are delivered in accordance with standards set forth by the National Commission on Correctional Health Care, the American Academy of Pediatrics, the Centers for Disease Control, and the Food and Nutrition Board of the National Academy of Sciences.

Youth admitted to DJS residential programs require ongoing, routine preventative health care similar to other children their age. In some cases, youth may have unmet or chronic health care needs upon admission, or may develop an acute health condition that needs to be addressed. DJS ensures that each program has licensed nurses, physicians, dieticians, and dental providers, as well as laboratory and pharmacy services to meet the health care needs of the youth. For specialty, surgical, emergency, or in-patient care that may be required, youth are transported to community providers as needed.

Each youth must have a current nursing assessment, history and physical examination, vision screening, and dental screening upon admission or soon thereafter. Youth are also screened or tested for anemia and infectious diseases including tuberculosis, COVID-19, sexually transmitted infections, and HIV. Girls are provided comprehensive gynecological care either on-site or in the community in order to meet individual needs.

Vaccine records are requested on all youth, and DJS makes every effort to fully immunize youth who are not up to date on recommended and required vaccinations. DJS participates in the Federal Vaccines for Children Program.

Youth are seen at regularly scheduled clinic times and as needed for "sick call" requests. In addition, they are seen at least monthly by nursing staff to check on their overall health status and weight.

EDUCATIONAL SERVICES

Educational services are provided to youth by the Maryland State Department of Education, Juvenile Services Education System (JSES). JSES provides youth in all of the department's residential programs with the ability to earn a high school diploma via the earning of credits or passage of the GED. In addition to academics, the educational programs provide opportunities for each youth to develop career and technology skills that will further assist them when they transition back to the community.

The JSES curriculum is based on the Maryland State College and Career Readiness Standards (CCRS). The curriculum includes grade-level instruction in English, Social Studies, Mathematics, and Science. Middle school coursework and remediation for high school students are also offered in reading, written language, and math as appropriate.

Youth who have a current Individualized Education Program (IEP) are provided with the required services listed in their IEP. Additionally, eligible youth participate in the mandated Maryland Comprehensive Assessment Program (MCAP).

On July 1, 2022, the responsibility of implementing educational programming will transfer from MSDE to an independent unit within DJS under the Juvenile Services Education Program.

DJS Youth Centers - Career & Technology and the Garrett College Programs

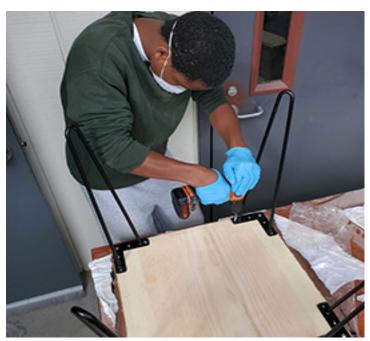

The DJS Youth Centers offer on-site Career and Technology programming to all participants. The two primary goals of this programming are high school completion and job skill development. Certificates are awarded for successful completion of the program, signifying employment competency in fields such as flagger, and commercial food preparation/sanitation. In addition, all youth have opportunities to participate in community projects that employ their acquired skills.

Backbone Mountain Youth Center and Mountain View at Backbone also offer an innovative program that provides youth with the unique opportunity to be simultaneously enrolled in high school classes and introductory college courses through Garrett College of Maryland. Youth are screened through a referral, record review, and interview process for acceptance into the program. The Garrett College initiative has been operational at Backbone Mountain since September 2006.

CLASSIFICATION

All DJS-operated treatment programs utilize the Housing Classification Assessment, an objective internal classification system to assess a youth's potential vulnerability and supervision needs (see Appendix G). The results of the classification assessment are used to guide appropriate housing decisions and room assignments. The classification assessment is implemented for all youth upon admission to the program, and it allows for reclassification in response to circumstances or special needs that may require modification of housing or room assignment. All DJS treatment programs have been audited by the Department of Justice and found to be fully compliant with juvenile facility standards.

Green Ridge, Backbone Mountain, and Mountain View youth worked on wood and epoxy projects as part of the Maryland Charity Drive.

Re-Entry Process

DJS recognizes the importance of effectively transitioning committed youth from a treatment program back to the community. These youth may face challenges re-enrolling in school or accessing needed somatic or behavioral health services. Treatment received in placement may be continued in the community, and progress that has been made should continue as part of an integrated aftercare plan. DJS has implemented policies to support this transition as part of a re-entry strategic plan.

A re-entry staffing meeting is held 45 days prior to release, involving the youth, the facility treatment team, community case manager, as well as the youth's family, who are invited and encouraged to participate. Progress on the youth's individual treatment service plan is reviewed, as well as a housing plan, educational or occupational needs, ongoing behavioral and somatic health service requirements, and family relationships and supports. A re-entry checklist guides and captures the results of this process. Most youth continue under DJS aftercare supervision, where their treatment plan continues to guide

A Note to Readers

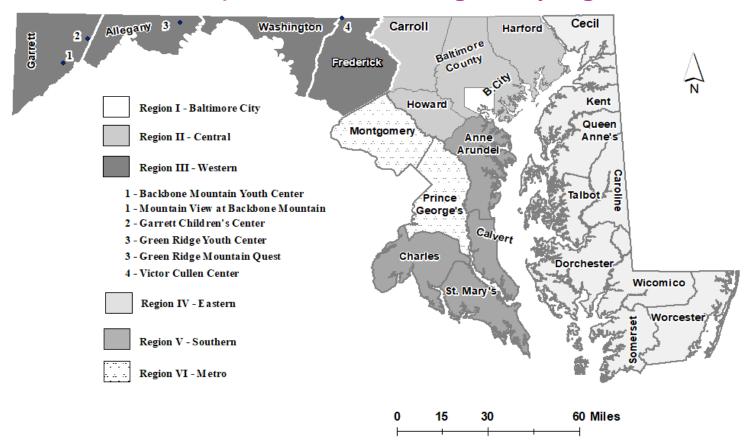

Placement versus Admission: A placement is based on a decision made by the Department or a judge to place a youth into a treatment program. An admission occurs when a youth physically enters a program either through direct placement or through transfer. Therefore, during one placement, a youth may have several admissions, and these counts will not match.

Average Length of Stay (ALOS) Data: is based on all releases: successful, unsuccessful, and transfers.

service and supervision efforts. After 30 days, a DJS reentry specialist checks to ensure that the youth has accessed all needed services, has successfully re-enrolled in their local public school when appropriate, and has remained in stable and suitable housing. (See page 5 for the re-entry strategic plan goals and Appendix U for the re-entry checklists).

DJS State-Operated Treatment Programs by Region

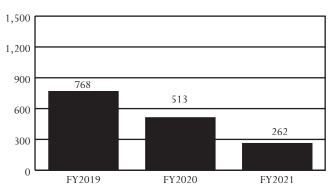

Statewide Total

The juvenile court may commit a youth to the care and custody of DJS, thereby transferring legal custody to the Department. A range of out-of-home program options has been developed for committed youth. Community-based program options include placement in a foster home, group home, or independent living program. Placements in non-community settings include Residential Treatment Centers (RTCs), DJS-operated Youth Centers, and secure confinement programs. DJS operated six treatment programs in Maryland during FY 2021, including Garrett Children's Center, which was temporarily closed. DJS also contracts with other programs, both in and out of state.

Note: Community-Based Family Therapy Programs are presented within this section (pages 186-187) because one of their primary goals is to divert youth from out-of-home committed placement. These data are not included on the statewide tables, which only include youth in committed out-of-home placements.

COMMITTED PLACEMENTS, FY 2019-2021

There were no committed placements for youth under age 13 during FY 2021. Therefore, the pages typically presented for the under age 13 population were removed from this Data Resource Guide.

Releases by Completion Status*, FY 2021

^{*} Release completion status is based on case worker determination. Youth released home or to a step-down program are included as successful, and youth transferred to another program are included as transferred.

¹ Includes: Affray, BB Gun/Pellet Gun, Child Abuse, Cruelty to Animals, Escape, Fraud, Harassment, Life-Threatening Injury by Motor Vehicle or Vessel, Reckless Endangerment, Telephone Misuse, and Unspecified Felony.

² See Appendices K and R for COV and other offense classifications.

¹ ALOS is based on all releases: successful, unsuccessful, and transfer.

^{*}All data exclude transfers within and between programs/program types and therefore may not add up to the totals presented. Placement data may not be comparable to DRGs prior to FY 2019.

^{} Data for Group Homes can not be compared to previous Data Resource Guides. Data for Silver Oak Academy and Intermediate Care Facilities for Addictions (ICFA) were reported separately in previous DRGs. They have been merged under Group Homes due to program certification and closures.

Statewide Females Only

Female youth represented approximately 15% of the population of youth committed to the care and custody of the Department during FY 2021. DJS offers the same continuum of placement options to both girls and boys, with the exception of an in-state hardware-secure program. Community-based program options include placement in a foster home, group home, or independent living program. During FY 2020, placements in non-community settings include Residential Treatment Centers (RTC) and the J. DeWeese Carter Center, a hardware-secure, DJS-operated treatment program for girls. This program was closed June 30, 2020, and the population was moved to Mountain View, a new staff-secure female-only program on the grounds of Backbone Mountain Youth Center. Out-of-state contracted programs are also available.

Releases by Completion Status*, FY 2021

^{*} Release completion status is based on case worker determination. Youth released home or to a step-down program are included as successful, and youth transferred to another program are included as transferred.

¹ Includes: Affray, BB Gun/Pellet Gun, Child Abuse, Cruelty to Animals, Escape, Fraud, Harassment, Life-Threatening Injury by Motor Vehicle or Vessel, Reckless Endangerment, Telephone Misuse, and Unspecified Felony.

² See Appendices K and R for COV and other offense classifications.

¹ ALOS is based on all releases: successful, unsuccessful, and transfer.

^{*}All data exclude transfers within and between programs/program types and therefore may not add up to the totals presented. Placement data may not be comparable to DRGs prior to FY 2019.

^{} Data previously reported under the separate category of Intermediate Care Facilities for Addictions (ICFA) were merged under Group Homes due to ICFA program closures. Therefore, data for Group Home cannot be compared to DRGs prior to FY 2019.

Statewide Youth of Color Only

The data shown in this section provide additional detail for youth of color (non-white youth). Although each summary page in the Data Resource Guide Treatment Program Section provides an overall race/ethnicity breakdown for treatment programs in the Demographics table, the tables in this section provide more detailed information on programs and ADP by type and region, offense type and severity, and length of stay for youth of color as a whole.

Foster Care

Traditional Foster Care is continuous 24-hour care with supportive services provided to a youth in a DJS-approved family home. The foster family serves low-risk youth who cannot be managed in their own homes. Youth served may be experiencing behavioral problems and need a respite from family/neighborhood issues. Foster Care also serves youth who need long-term placement, primarily because it may not be appropriate for youth to return home. Treatment Foster Care (TFC) is continuous 24-hour care with intensive support services operated by a licensed child placement agency or local Department of Social Services (DSS) in a family setting for children with serious emotional, behavioral, medical, and/or psychological conditions. The behaviors of the youth served are not so severe that removal from the community is necessary.

Group Homes

General group homes are non-profit residential programs for youth in placements licensed by DHS, DJS, or the Office of Health Care Quality (OHCQ), which is part of the Maryland Department of Health (MDH). They provide out-of-home care for four or more youth who are moderate to high risk and need more structure and supervision than a relative, foster parent, or treatment foster care program could offer. General group homes also provide a formal program of basic care, social work, and healthcare services. Therapeutic group homes (TGH) are residential programs for youth in out-of-home care that are licensed by OHCQ, and they must be non-profit organizations. TGHs provide access to a range of diagnostic and therapeutic mental health services to youth who are moderate to high risk and have an emotional or developmental disability. Those TGHs that provide educational programs on their grounds are considered to be staff-secure programs.

Independent Living Programs (Including Alternative Living Units)

Independent Living Programs are operated by DHS-licensed child placement agencies for youth 15 to 21 years of age who need to become self-sufficient and learn responsible living skills, as they are unlikely to return home. Youth reside in either group homes or supervised apartment units and must be enrolled in high school, college, vocational training, or be gainfully employed. During the program, youth learn about interpersonal skills, money management, job readiness, conflict management, positive leisure opportunities, and communication skills. Alternative Living Units are residences owned, leased, or operated by a licensee that: (a) provides residential services for children who, because of a developmental disability, require specialized living arrangements; (b) admits not more than three children; and (c) provides 24-hour care.

Residential Treatment Centers (Includes Psychiatric Hospitals & Diagnostic Units/Clinical Evaluation Units)

Residential Treatment Centers (RTCs) provide intensive psychiatric and psychological treatment services. These centers are required to have psychiatrists, psychologists, and psychiatric nurses on staff to lead treatment. Maryland RTCs are approved for operation through the State Certificate of Need (CON) process and are licensed through the Office of Health Care Quality (OHCQ). Some RTCs concentrate on specific youth populations. For example, some staff-secure and hardware-secure RTCs focus on youth with behavioral problems and/or considered to be potentially harmful to self or others. The RTCs are intended to stabilize the youth's emotional condition, to provide services that increase the youth's ability to manage his/her mental illness as a potentially life-long challenge, to help the youth develop social skills for coping with both daily or difficult situations and interpersonal relationships, and to transition the youth to a less restrictive environment or home.

Out-of-State (OOS) Programs

Maryland law prohibits an out-of-state placement for youth unless a court finds the youth's individualized needs cannot be met through instate resources. Additionally, DJS policy states that youth may not be placed out of state without the approval of the Secretary or designee. The Department adheres to Interstate Compact requirements and agreements with other states regarding requests for permission and notification when youth are placed in another state. Youth placed in out-of-state programs are visited by DJS staff at least quarterly, and parents/guardians are provided with opportunities to visit youth at least once per quarter. OOS programs are licensed by local authorities and not by Maryland agencies. DJS contracts with vendors to provide services in two broad categories: (1) RTC-level specialized mental health services and (2) staff- and hardware-secure programming.

Backbone Mountain Youth Center (State-Operated)

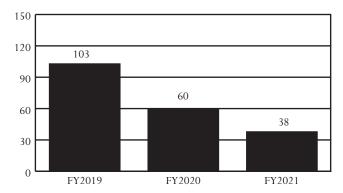

Staff Secure - Region III - Western

Rated Capacity: 24 Males (Capacity was reduced from 48 to 24 on June 20, 2020.)

124 Camp 4 Road Swanton, MD 21561 301-359-9190

This treatment program is located on Backbone Mountain in Garrett County. Programming includes STARR (the DJS behavioral motivation program), Seven Challenges (evidence-based drug treatment), START (evidence-based cognitive behavioral group intervention focused on developing youth's social skills, anger control, and moral reasoning), and TAMAR-Y (curriculum to address trauma and teach coping skills). Substance abuse treatment is offered on a continuum from early intervention to clinically managed medium intensity, as appropriate for the individual participant. Behavioral Health staff provide individual, group, and family counseling services. Family engagement in treatment planning is encouraged. Regular family interaction is encouraged through family visits, phone calls, special family day activities at the facility, and home visits to help youth successfully transition back to the community. Telepsychiatry services are available to all youth. Recreational programming includes camping and intramural sports competitions. MSDE provides educational services on a 12-month schedule, with six hours of daily instruction five days a week in English, mathematics, science, social studies, health, and life skills. MSDE also offers OSHA and ServSafe Certification, as well as individualized programs to prepare youth for the GED exam. The College Program is offered in conjunction with Garrett College of Maryland. Youth are screened for acceptance into the program. Selected youth are admitted for one college semester while in DJS care and earn a MD High School Diploma, as well as up to 15 college credits.

Garrett Children's Center (State-Operated) (Formerly Savage Mountain Youth Center)

164 Freedom Lane Lonaconing, MD 21539 301-463-2244

Superintendent: Walter Alston Hardware Secure - Region III - Western Rated Capacity: 8 Males (When ongoing renovations are complete, capacity will be 24.)

Garrett Children's Center, formerly known as Savage Mountain Youth Center (name changed on June 3, 2020), is a treatment program for males located in Garrett County. While individual admissions are assessed on a case-by-case basis, youth admitted typically present a high risk of AWOL/escape and/or demonstrate significant mental health, behavioral or substance abuse treatment needs, or display developmental or maturity factors that are considered best served by a hardware-secure placement. Programming includes STARR (the DJS behavioral modification program), Seven Challenges (evidence-based drug treatment), START (evidence-based cognitive behavioral group intervention focused on developing youth's social skills, anger control, and moral reasoning), and TAMAR-Y (curriculum to address trauma and teach coping skills). Green Ridge Mountain Quest (State-Operated)

Superintendent: Todd Bowman

Staff Secure - Region III - Western

Flintstone, MD 21530

10700 Fifteen Mile Creek Road

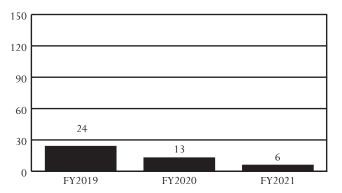

301-478-2930

Rated Capacity: 6 Males (Capacity was reduced from 10 to 6 on August 18, 2020.)

Mountain Quest is a 90-day treatment program for males ages 13-18 located at Green Ridge Youth Center. Mountain Quest is a first-time commitment program that provides youth time away from their families and communities, giving them the opportunity to change their behavior while learning to take responsibility for their actions. The Mountain Quest program gives youth the opportunity to work on thought patterns and behaviors that will help them be more successful when they return to the community. Family work and interventions are critical at this time to better assess needs and provide an open line of communication.

The program offers individual and group behavioral health interventions, drug education, and telepsychiatry services. Youth participate in TAMAR-Y(curriculum to address trauma and teach coping skills), as well as START (an evidence-based cognitive behavioral group intervention focused on developing youth's social skills, anger control, and moral reasoning). Regular family interaction is encouraged with visits, phone calls, family days, and family counseling. Telepsychiatry services are available to all youth. MSDE provides educational services on a 12-month schedule, with six hours of daily instruction five days a week in English, mathematics, science, social studies, health, and life skills. Additionally, MSDE offers individualized programs to prepare youth for the GED exam.

Community-Based Family Therapy Programs

DJS uses research-supported, community-based family therapy programs to address the needs of youth, and to reduce further system involvement and out-of-home placements. Evidence-Based Services (EBS) constitute those designated as "model" programs by Blueprints for Healthy Youth Development (Center for the Study and Prevention of Violence at the University of Colorado Boulder) and currently include Functional Family Therapy (FFT) and Multisystemic Therapy (MST). These services are family-based therapeutic models shown to be effective with youth involved with the juvenile justice system. In addition, Family Centered Treatment (FCT), provided by the Institute for Family Centered Services, Inc., is a family preservation model of in-home treatment, which helps families to learn and adopt positive behavioral patterns.

Measuring Recidivism Rates*

Measuring recidivism for DJS youth is a vital tool for understanding the effectiveness of interventions aimed at reducing future system involvement and for measuring the ultimate public safety impact of services provided. Though other outcomes are also important to study, including future educational attainment, employment, and other non-offense-related outcomes, recidivism remains the primary measure of success. DJS therefore conducts an annual recidivism study and publishes comprehensive recidivism reports as part of the Data Resource Guide. It is important to note that recidivism is not only a measure of the effectiveness of the program/services provided, but it also depends on the quality of re-entry planning, aftercare supervision, availability and quality of supports in the community and/or family to which youth return, local economic opportunities, and other factors. It is also important to account for the assessed risk levels of youth served when analyzing success. All youth assigned to probation or placed in an out-of-home treatment program are assessed for risk of future reoffending using the validated MCASP needs assessment. The assessed risk level guides decisions about the level of supervision and intensity of treatment services required for an individual youth. MCASP identifies factors that have been shown to predict future reoffending, such as prior delinquency and criminogenic risk factors related to school, family, substance use, peers, etc. Programs that serve higher-risk youth might expect to see higher recidivism rates than those serving lower-risk youth. Studies have also shown that services designed for higher-risk youth may not be effective, or even prove detrimental if provided to lower-risk youth. For these reasons, these reports include a breakdown of the levels of risk of the recidivism study cohorts.

RECIDIVISM DEFINITION

The juvenile justice community has not reached a consensus on how best to define recidivism with a single measure, so DJS captures and reports several measures. Because youth may age out of juvenile court jurisdiction during the recidivism follow-up period, DJS includes information from the adult criminal justice system. Since many charges are not ultimately sustained by the juvenile court or found guilty in an adult court, DJS measures not only new arrests, but also resulting juvenile court adjudications or adult convictions and new juvenile out-of-home commitments or adult incarcerations. Maryland tracks new arrests for up to three years, but publishes rearrest rates after a one-year follow up period, and reconviction and reincarceration with a two-year lag, to account for often lengthy court processing times. For purposes of these recidivism studies, a new arrest includes any new delinquent or criminal felony/misdemeanor offense. Not counted are status offenses, traffic citations, violations of local ordinances, and technical violations of probation which do not include a new delinquent or criminal offense. Only those new adjudications, convictions, commitments, and incarcerations that are the result of a new arrest are included, not those stemming from offenses prior to the probation or commitment treatment episode. All recidivism rates are calculated at the youth level, rather than the case level. Youth who recidivate in both juvenile and adult systems are counted only once by the first offense or arrest date during the follow-up period. It is, however, possible for a youth to appear in both the probation and committed treatment study cohorts.

RECIDIVISM OF YOUTH RELEASED FROM A COMMITTED TREATMENT PROGRAM

Youth released from out-of-home committed treatment programs are a primary focus for measuring recidivism. These data include youth who had been committed to DJS by the Maryland juvenile court for placement in an out-of-home treatment program (whether within Maryland or out of state) and who were released within the study year. Youth from outside Maryland are included if they have been committed by a Maryland court. Treatment programs ranging from foster placements to programs involving secure confinement are included, and programs may be operated by DJS or provide services under contract. New offenses that occur on the same day of commitment release while youth are in a treatment program are not counted as recidivism. Results are shown by year of new offense, level of recidivism, demographics, county, risk level, program type, and by individual program. In cases where a youth had been served by multiple programs during a commitment spell, transfers are not considered as a release, and rates are attributed to the program representing the final release.

PROBATION RECIDIVISM

This cohort includes all youth with a new juvenile probation disposition during the year. Recidivism events are tracked from the disposition date for up to three years, regardless of how long a youth remains under supervision. Results are shown by year of new offense, level of recidivism, demographics, region, county, and risk level.

Cohort	Definition	Clock Starts	Assigned to	Further Breakdown/ Summary
Probation	Youth with a probation disposition in FY. The first probation disposition is selected if youth have more than one.	Date of probation disposition	Region of jurisdiction of case manager	Year, Race, Gender, Age, Region, County, Assessed Risk
Treatment Program	Youth released from a treatment program in FY who stayed at least 16 days	Date of final release, excluding transfers	Final program from which youth was released	Year, Race, Gender, Age, Region, County, Program Type, Program, Assessed Risk

*Prior to 2015, date of the court action/placement was used, and non-delinquent referrals were counted. Also, the measure of probation recidivism was expanded in 2019 to include all probation cases, not just first-time dispositions. This Guide includes a five-year chart using the revised methodology for all years to show the long-term trend.

Section V: Recidivism Rates 191

Recidivism	Definition	Date Used	Excludes	Data Source
Juvenile Arrest	Subsequent offense referred to DJS	Offense date within follow- up period	Excludes violations of probation or aftercare not involving a new delinquent offense; CINS referrals, civil citations, local ordinance violations, arrests in other states, arrests for offenses occurring prior to release, and arrests diverted by police and not referred to DJS.	DJS ASSIST
Adult Arrest	Adult arrest in Maryland	Arrest date within follow- up period	Excludes violations of probation or parole, civil citations, arrests outside of Maryland, Federal holds, arrests for offenses that occur on the same day of release from a treatment program.	CJIS
Juvenile Adjudication	Sustained delinquent adjudication included in reoffense	Offense date within follow- up period	Excludes continued cases	DJS ASSIST
Adult Conviction	Conviction on charges included in adult arrest	Arrest date within follow- up period	Same as adult arrest	CJIS
Juvenile Commitment	Committed placement stemming from offense included in reoffense and readjudication	Offense date within follow- up period	Excludes commitments not resulting in out-of-home placement	DJS ASSIST
Adult Incarceration	Conviction on charges included in adult arrest count resulting in a sentence of incarceration (or possible confinement)	Arrest date within follow- up period	Same as adult arrest	CJIS

For purposes of this Data Resource Guide, rates will be combined for the juvenile and adult system into three overall categories using juvenile and/or criminal justice recidivism measures and labeled as:

1. Rearrest 2. Reconviction 3. Reincarceration

DATA SOURCES

Information from two different databases (juvenile and adult) is retrieved, processed, and compiled for each of the selected released cohorts. Data gathering involves the following procedures:

- A list of all youth with a probation disposition, or released from DJS committed residential treatment programs is obtained from the Department's ASSIST management information system.
- Master cohort files are created containing gender, race, date of birth, county of jurisdiction, region of jurisdiction, county of residence, and region of residence. For committed youth, the last program name and program type from which youth was released during the release cohort is also included. Risk level is added using the full MCASP assessment completed or updated closest and prior to the committed release date for committed youth, and closest to the disposition date for probation youth.
- For both committed and probation cohort files, juvenile recidivism events are added from the ASSIST database, including subsequent arrests, adjudications, and commitments. Dates of offense are used to code recidivism events as occurring one, two, and three years after release.
- Adult arrest and court disposition information is obtained from the Criminal Justice Information System (CJIS), using DJS youth name, date of birth, race, and gender as identification or index fields. These records are added to a text file and returned to DJS with the response data. Name match is as follows: Smith, Gregory will match with Smith, Gregory and Smith Greg. Smith, Greg will match with Smith, Greg and Smith, Gr, but not with Smith, Gregory. DJS youth names are given in full and checked for any abbreviation as Gr or Greg for example.
- Youth who recidivate in both systems are counted only once by the first offense or arrest date during the follow-up period.

Total	674	327	48.5%	124	18.4%	82	12.2%

- Males had higher recidivism rates than females for all measures.
- Black youth had the highest rates for rearrest, reconviction and reincarcerations.
- Some age groups comprise a small number of youth. Therefore, the reoffense of a few can strongly influence the overall rate. For this reason, caution should be used when attempting to compare age groups.

Totals presented in the table above include each type of facility reported in that broad category. For example: "Independent Living" includes Independent Living as well as Alternative Living Units. * Data previously reported under a separate category of ICFA were merged under Group Homes due to ICFA program closures and Silver Oak Academy is now reported under Group Homes due to program certification. Therefore, data for Group Homes are not comparable to previous DRGs.

Note: All data represent both juvenile and/or adult recidivism. Due to methodological changes, data are not comparable to Data Resource Guides prior to FY 2015.

[•] When examining the percentages presented above, it is important to consider the number of releases. Some counties have a small number of releases; therefore, if a few youth reoffend, this can greatly impact the recidivism rate.

Note: All data represent both juvenile and/or adult recidivism. Due to methodological changes, data are not comparable to Data Resource Guides prior to FY 2015.

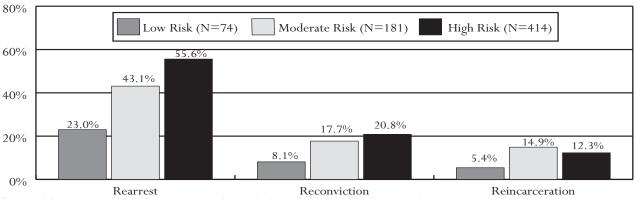

TREATMENT PROGRAM RELEASES BY RISK LEVEL*, FY 2015-2019 RELEASES

* Percentages for each FY may not add to 100% due to cases with missing or incomplete risk assessments.

• The percentage of youth with a high risk of recidivism has increased 17.1 percentage points between FY 2015 and FY 2019. The highest percentage of youth fall into the high-risk category in each fiscal year. This is especially important when considered in conjunction with the recidivism data presented in the graph below.

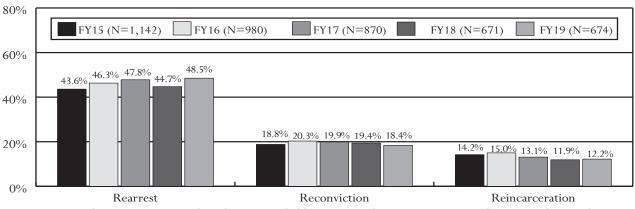

12-MONTH JUVENILE AND/OR CRIMINAL JUSTICE RECIDIVISM RATES BY RISK LEVEL*, FY 2019 RELEASES

* Risk-level data were rerun in 2020 due to MCASP matching methodology change; data cannot be compared to previous DRGs.

• Youth with a high risk of recidivism had the highest recidivism rates for rearrest and reconviction. For reincarceration, youth with a moderate risk of recidivism had the highest recidivism rate.

12-MONTH JUVENILE AND/OR CRIMINAL JUSTICE RECIDIVISM RATES, FY 2015-2019 RELEASES

Rearrest and reconviction rates have been remarkably consistent between FY 2015 and FY 2019 despite the increases in the high risk cohorts during the same time period.

Due to methodological changes, recidivism data are not comparable to Data Resource Guides prior to FY 2015. Risk-level data are not comparable to previous Data Resource Guides.

For total Foster Care releases:

- Between FY 2018 and FY 2020, the rearrest rate increased 17.5 percentage points.
- Between FY 2018 and FY 2019:
 - The reconviction rate decreased 5.5 percentage points.
 - The reincarceration rate decreased 2.7 percentage points.

Note: Throughout this section, programs that had no releases within a fiscal year will have N/A reported for all recidivism measures. For FY 2020, reconviction and reincarceration rates are not available due to court dispositions requiring an additional year to account for lengthy court processing time.

^{*}Some programs/facilities serve a small number of youth each year; therefore, reoffenses of a few youth may result in a seemingly high overall recidivism rate. For this reason, numbers rather than rates are presented at the program level. Due to methodological changes, data are not comparable to Data Resource Guides prior to FY 2015.

Section V: Recidivism Rates 201

^{*}Some programs/facilities serve a small number of youth each year; therefore, reoffenses of a few youth may result in a seemingly high overall recidivism rate. For this reason, numbers rather than rates are presented at the program level. Due to methodological changes, data are not comparable to Data Resource Guides prior to FY 2015.

Total	1,716	733	42.7%	278	16.2%	139	8.1%

Note: The probation cohort includes youth placed on probation (not youth released from probation). Therefore, recidivism is measured starting at the disposition date and may include new offenses while under supervision or after supervision.

- Males had higher recidivism rates than females for all measures.
- Black youth had the highest rearrest, reconviction and incarceration rates.
- Some age groups comprise a small number of youth. Therefore, the reoffense of a few can strongly influence the overall rate. For this reason, caution should be used when attempting to compare age groups.

[†]Due to methodological changes, data are not comparable to Data Resource Guides prior to FY 2019. ^{*} Since the probation cohort includes youth who may not have been previously placed in a treatment program, "incarceration" reflects a subsequent commitment to an out-of-home placement or incarceration in the adult system.

[•] When examining the percentages presented above, it is important to consider the number of placements. Some counties have a small number of placements; therefore, if a few youth reoffend, this can greatly impact the recidivism rate.

Section V: Recidivism Rates 205

[†]Due to methodological changes, data are not comparable to Data Resource Guides prior to FY 2019. *Since the probation cohort includes youth who may not have been previously placed in a treatment program, "incarceration" reflects a subsequent commitment to an out-of-home placement or incarceration in the adult system.

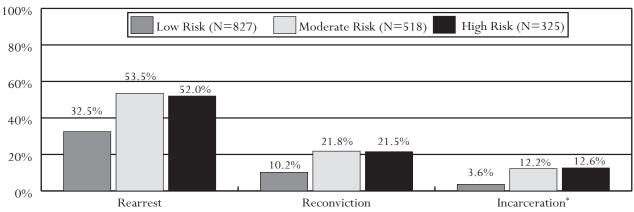

PROBATION YOUTH BY RISK LEVEL¹, FY 2015-2019[^]

¹ Percentages for each FY may not add to 100% due to cases with missing or incomplete risk assessments. Percentages for FY 2019 are calculated excluding youth with missing or incomplete MCASP risk levels and 36 youth with risk levels from the post-validation MCASP tool.

• The proportion of high risk probation cases has increased 7.4 percentage points between FY 2015 and FY 2019. This is important to note as assessed risk predicts recidivism, so high risk youth tend to recidivate at higher rates.

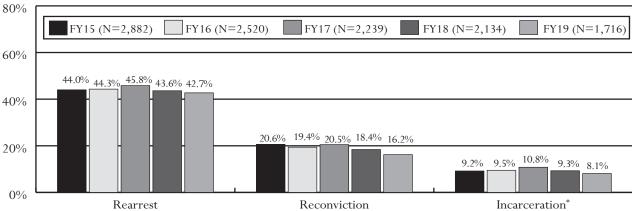

12-MONTH JUVENILE AND/OR CRIMINAL JUSTICE RECIDIVISM RATES BY RISK LEVEL¹ FOR PROBATION YOUTH⁺, FY 2019[^]

¹ Risk-level data were rerun in 2020 due to MCASP matching methodology change; data cannot be compared to previous DRGs.

• Youth with low risk levels on the pre-validation MCASP had the lowest recidivism rates for all three measures.

12-MONTH JUVENILE AND/OR CRIMINAL JUSTICE RECIDIVISM RATES FOR PROBATION YOUTH⁺, FY 2015-2019

• Rearrest rates increased 1.9 percentage points between FY 2015 and FY 2017; however, between FY 2017 and FY 2019, there was a decrease of 3.1 percentage points. Reconviction rates and incarceration rates were lowest in FY 2019.

[†]Due to methodological changes, recidivism data are not comparable to Data Resource Guides prior to FY 2019. [^]Risk-level data are not comparable to previous Data Resource Guides. ^{*} Since the probation cohort includes youth who may not have been previously placed in a treatment program, "incarceration" reflects a subsequent commitment to an out-of-home placement or incarceration in the adult system.

C.H.A.M.P.S. (Changing Habits and Making Progressive Strides) and DJS Victim Services teamed up to participate in the Red Sand Project in recognition of Human Trafficking Awareness month. Youth and staff from several detention centers poured sand into cracks on sidewalks and other areas throughout the facilities to symbolize those who "fall through the cracks."

^{*&}quot;Per Diem Rates" are presented for privately-operated programs that DJS reimburses for service using a single rate. Rates are not presented for programs that are funded in whole or in part by other sources such as private health care insurance or Medicaid. Psychiatric Hospitals are excluded as a class for this reason, and rates for in-state Residential Treatment Centers are based on 5 of 6 programs utilized by DJS during FY 2021.

^{*}Capacity notes: Backbone Mountain YC capacity was reduced from 48 to 24 on 6/20/2020; Garrett Children's Center's budgeted rated capacity is 24 though the facility operated with a functional capacity of 8 during the FY prior to its temporary closure; Green Ridge Mountain Quest capacity was reduced from 10 to 6 on 8/18/2020; Green Ridge YC capacity was reduced from 30 to 18 on 8/18/2020.

^{}Educational costs are not included in the per diem rates. Educational costs may vary within a program depending on the combination of services provided (e.g., regular education versus special education) and the educational needs of youth placed in the program.

^{}The average per diem rate should not be used to calculate the total cost by program type given the range of per diem rates. The average per diem rate does not take into account individual program utilization, and the total cost may vary substantially based on the number of youth who actually participate in each program.

ACCOUNTABILITY INCENTIVES MANAGEMENT (AIM)

AIM grids are designed to structure case manager decision-making when responding to positive or negative behaviors of supervised youth. The Graduated Responses grid determines an appropriate response based on the level of infraction and the level of youth supervision. Responses range from a verbal warning at the lowest level, to requesting a formal violation at the highest. This structured process supports the Department's efforts to reward positive behaviors and objectively identify and sanction violations, which reduces inequalities and increases successful completion rates among supervised youth.

CRIMES OF VIOLENCE

The definition of "crimes of violence" occurs in two separate places in Maryland's Annotated Code. The Maryland State Commission on Criminal Sentencing Policy uses the definition found in the Maryland Annotated Code, Correctional Services Article, Section 7-101(m). This definition, which is used here, references section 14-101 of the Criminal Law Article and also includes burglary in the 1st, 2nd, or 3rd degree.

Maryland Annotated Code, Criminal Law Article, Section 14-101 provides a list of crimes identified as crimes of violence. In this section, "crime of violence" means:

(1) abduction; (2) arson in the first degree; (3) kidnapping; (4) manslaughter, except involuntary manslaughter; (5) mayhem; (6) maiming, as previously proscribed under former Article 27, §§ 385 and 386 of the Code; (7) murder; (8) rape; (9) robbery under §3-402 or §3-403 of this article; (10) carjacking; (11) armed carjacking; (12) sexual offense in the first degree; (13) sexual offense in the second degree; (14) use of a firearm in the commission of a felony except possession with intent to distribute a controlled dangerous substance under §5-602(2) of this article, or other crime of violence; (15) child abuse in the first degree under §3-601 of this article; (16) sexual abuse of a minor under §3-602 of this article if:

- (i) the victim is under the age of 13 years and the offender is an adult at the time of the offense; and
- (ii) the offense involved:
- 1. vaginal intercourse, as defined in §3-301 of this article;
- 2. a sexual act, as defined in §3-301 of this article;
- 3. an act in which a part of the offender's body penetrates, however slightly, into the victim's genital opening or anus; or
- 4. the intentional touching, not through the clothing, of the victim's or the offender's genital, anal, or other intimate area for sexual arousal, gratification, or abuse;

(17) home invasion under §6-202(b) of this article; (18) a felony offense under Title 3, Subtitle 11 of this article; (19) an attempt to commit any of the crimes described in items (1) through (18) of this subsection; (20) continuing course of conduct with a child under § 3-315 of this article; (21) assault in the first degree; (22) assault with intent to murder; (23) assault with intent to rape; (24) assault with intent to rob; (25) assault with intent to commit a sexual offense in the first degree; and (26) assault with intent to commit a sexual offense in the second degree.

Appendix O RELATIVE RATE INDEX (RRI)

The Relative Rate Index (RRI) is a measure of Disproportionate Minority Contact (DMC) with the juvenile justice system. It is a standardized tool for measuring how ethnic minorities compare with white youth at various contact points (court referral, diversion, etc.). The RRI was developed by the National Center for Juvenile Justice, with funding from the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP), part of the Office of Justice Programs, within the U.S. Department of Justice.

DEFINITIONS FOR KEY CONTACT POINTS

The definitions below describe each key contact point included in the tables that follow, along with a brief explanation of each point. Understanding each contact point and how it is defined in the calculations will provide the basis for proper interpretation of the rates. Though not a 'contact point,' the general youth population is included because it is a key data point for calculating the rate of contact.

Contact Point	Definition
Population	Population of youth ages 11-17 as of July 2020. Source: MD Dept. of Planning. Note: DJS uses 11-17 as a population denominator due to the low number of cases under 11.
Referrals to Juvenile Court/Intake	Juvenile complaints referred to DJS intake, from police or other sources, including delinquent & non-delinquent offenses, recorded in ASSIST. Rate is based on youth in the general population.
Diversion	Complaints diverted by DJS Intake (resolved or informally adjusted to pre-court supervision) without formal petition. Rate is per referral.
Detention	Cases resulting in detention either pre-disposition or pending placement, but not including youth removed to detention from a committed placement. Rate is per referral.
Petitioned	Complaints resulting in juvenile court petitions. Rate is per referral.
Delinquent	Complaints resulting in delinquent findings. Rate is per petition.
Probation	Probation dispositions. Rate is per delinquent finding.
Confinement	Youth placed in hardware-secure state-operated treatment programs or staff- and hardware-secure private out-of-state programs. Rate is per delinquent finding.
Transferred	Juvenile petitions waived up to adult court. Does not include charges under original adult jurisdiction. Rate is per petition.

RRI TABLE FOR ALL MINORITY YOUTH

The data presented here show the RRI for minority youth compared to white youth. An RRI of 1.0 indicates no disproportionate contact. A rate higher than 1.0 indicates that minority youth are over-represented at that decision point, and a rate below 1.0 shows they are under-represented. The RRI for each decision point is based on the number of youth of each race/ethnicity represented at that point compared with the number at the previous decision point.

RATES OF CONTACT FOR ALL YOUTH

This table shows the number and rate of representation for all youth, regardless of color, at each key juvenile justice decision point. The rates are based on the general population for this table, rather than based on the previous decision point.

¹ At all decision points minority youth include: African American, Asian or Pacific Islander, American Indian or Alaskan Native, Hispanic/Latino and Other/Unknown youth.

[•] Statistically significant results are shaded; Results that are not statistically significant are shown in regular font [•] Insufficient number of cases for analysis are shown as ; an RRI of 1.0 indicates no disproportional contact. A rate higher than 1.0 indicates that minority youth are disproportionately over-represented at that decision point, and a rate below 1.0 shows they are under-represented.

[•] This table calculates the rate of DJS contact for all youth at each stage, compared with the general population (Census ages 11-17). For example, for every 10,000 youth in Baltimore City, there were 54.2 youth detained, and in Prince George's County there were 5.1 youth detained per 10,000 youth.

Planning maryland.gov/MSDC/Pages/pop_estimate/CensPopEst.aspx (accessed on August 2021).

The proportions of age ranges 11-14 and 15-17 have been computed from the population by age (single year), race and ethnicity for Maryland. The proportions were then applied to estimate each jurisdiction's/county's pop, from the population by age (5-year age group), race and ethnicity of Maryland jurisdictions.

Excludes Hispanic and Latino; OPI: Other Pacific Islander

Commission on Criminal Sentencing Policy assigns each offense a seriousness category (ranging from I to VII) for purposes of MD sentencing guidelines. The guidelines distinguish person, property, and drug offenses and utilize a separate sentencing matrix for each offense type. The DJS Offense Severity score ranges from 1 to 5, with 1 designating the most serious criminal offenses. The score is based on a combination of the MD sentencing guidelines seriousness category and offense type designation (person, property, or drug). *Active as of 10/1/2021;  Offense date prior to 10/1/2017; ¹The term "gang" was replaced by "criminal organization" as of 10/1/2020; ²Inactive as of 10/1/2019; ³Inactive as of 10/1/2020

¹ Fewer than three items are listed if all offenses have been captured. More than three items are listed when there is an equal number of offenses, i.e., a tie, for the third most common offense; additional tying offenses are then listed. For ties in first or second rank, tying items are counted as the subsequent rank.

YOUTH NAME:

DJS first utilized the Domestic Minor Sex Trafficking (DMST) Tier One and Tier One - B screening tools, developed in partnership with TurnAround, Inc., to identify youth within the DJS system who are at high risk of sex trafficking victimization and flag them for additional assessment and services. In 2020 in collaboration with the University of Maryland's Support, Advocacy, Freedom, and Empowerment (SAFE) Center for Human Trafficking Survivors, the screening tool was revised. The updated screening tool is titled Human Trafficking Tier One Screening Tool and includes questions to screen for labor trafficking. The Tier One tool is an 11-item questionnaire administered to youth by DJS facility intake staff and Case Management Specialists to help identify potential victims of both sex and/or labor trafficking. The tool is one part of a screening process in which the tool is administered by DJS staff and then reviewed by an anti-trafficking service provider.

Directions: Staff completing this tool should (1) ask each question in the interview and indicate "NR" if the youth does not respond after prompting, and (2) be aware of the attitude and demeanor of the youth during the interview and record observations (3) let the youth guide the level of information they provide.

READ TO YOUTH: I'm going to ask you a set of 11 questions about some things going on in your life. Anything you'd like to share will help identify how we can best help you.

1. Where did you stay last night?
2. Are you living or staying with anyone? □ No □Yes (Ask Question 2a)
2a. What is your relationship to them?
3. Have you ever been homeless, placed in foster care or an out of home placement?
4. Have you ever stayed away from home overnight without permission? (i.e., gone "runaway" or "awol")? □ No (Skip to Question 7) □ Yes (Ask Questions 4a-b)
4a. About how many times? (If youth has difficulty, ask if only 1 time, 2-3 times, 4-6 times, 7-10 times, more than 10)
4b. How long did you usually stay away?
5. How did you get what you needed (shelter, food, money, personal care items, clothing, etc.)?
6. Have you ever had to do anything you didn't want to in order to get something you needed? □No □Yes
7. Prior to this arrest, have you had any contact with police? ☐ No ☐ Yes (Ask Question 7a) 7a. In what cities/states did this contact occur?
8. It is not uncommon for young people to stay in work situations that are risky or even dangerous, simply because they have no other options. Have you ever worked, or done other things, in a place that made you feel scared or unsafe? \Box Yes \Box No

Updated June 2021

NEW REGIONAL BREAKDOWN AS OF JULY 1, 2021

Over the past year, the DJS executive team evaluated various organizational designs that would promote opportunities for community collaboration, improve the continuum of services, and ensure youth are supported at all stages of the juvenile justice system. The executive team decided to realign the regional community teams to strengthen operational structure. To accomplish this goal, DJS created smaller regional teams that align with the Maryland Judicial Circuits and moved from six to eight operational regions effective on July 1, 2021. In each region, regional directors oversee intake, community supervision, and community detention operations.

Because these changes were implemented on July 1, 2021, they were not in place during the data collection period for this Data Resource Guide. However, to provide contact information that will be current at the time of publication, the following table is included as a reference. Likewise, the map below illustrates the new regional structure.

Treatment Program Information

A range of out-of-home program options have been developed for youth committed to the custody of DJS by the juvenile court. Community-based program options include placement in a foster home, group home, or independent living program. Placements in non-community settings include Residential Treatment Centers (RTCs), DJS-operated Youth Centers, and secure confinement programs. DJS operated six treatment programs in Maryland during FY 2021. DJS also contracts with other programs both in state and out of state.
