

Charles H. Hickey, Jr. School

The Program

- * The Charles H. Hickey, Jr. School is an all-male detention center run by the Maryland Department of Juvenile Services and is located in Baltimore County.
- * Youth are held here while they await their court date or placement.
- * Hickey can serve up to 72 youth and primarily holds male youth from Baltimore, Carroll, Cecil, Harford, and Howard Counties.
- * All staff are trained in trauma-informed care.

Education

- * The Juvenile Services Education Program (JSEP) is an independent education program housed in the Department of Juvenile Services (DJS) which provides comprehensive educational services to all students placed in a DJS detention and/or residential facility.
- * JSEP schools facilitate individualized education that builds on students' strengths preparing them for continued success and positive engagement in their communities.
- * Students attend school six hours daily, year-round. Coursework is aligned with the Maryland State Department of Education (MSDE) standards and each student is enrolled in classes which meet their graduation requirements.
- * Student opportunities include Career and Technology Education (CTE) certifications, specialized instruction, GED preparation and testing, comprehensive school counseling supports, and post-secondary options.

Family Involvement & Visitation

- * Daily Visitation is offered seven days a week and requires a 24-hour notice from the family to the Facility Case Manager.
- * In-person and virtual visitation appointments cannot be scheduled during school and meal times.
- * Significant persons are permitted, meaning any individual identified by the youth who plays a supportive role in the youth's life. This could include a coach, mentor, teacher, or an additional family member, etc. Note: This will be in effect once there is no longer limited visitation.
