- Message: The Department of Juvenile Services is pleased to announce a tree planting and landscaping project that will put the finishing touches on the renovation project at the William Donald Schaefer House. The Schaefer House is a 90-day residential substance abuse treatment program that houses up to 20 boys. This renovation represents a series of facility improvements that have been done by the Department of Juvenile Services.

Please join us in celebrating this event with Secretary Donald W. DeVore, the Honorable William Donald Schaefer, the members of the Maryland State Delegation, Deputy Mayor Salima Marriott, Baltimore City Council President Stephanie Rawlings-Blake, Commissioner Frederick Bealefeld, residences and staff of the Schaefer House. The tree planting will be followed by a ribbon cutting and BBQ. Tours of the facility will also be provided.
