

Department of Juvenile Services Internship Guide

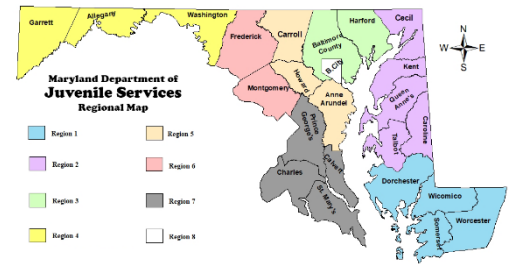

The Department of Juvenile Services (DJS) is an executive agency whose primary task is to appropriately manage, supervise, and treat youth who are involved in the juvenile justice system in Maryland. The Department of Juvenile Services engages in nearly every stage of the juvenile justice process. To learn more about DJS, visit our website <http://djs.maryland.gov>.

Locations/Sites

The Department of Juvenile Services provides a wide variety of internships with locations across the state (see map below) for current undergraduate and graduate students. Internships are available in our community offices, evening reporting centers (ERCs), detention centers, treatment facilities, and headquarters.

Experiences

Interns will engage in a variety of activities related to the juvenile justice system. Individual intern assignments will vary, but some duties may include: developing treatment service plans, identifying community resources, screening and processing young people entering the juvenile justice system, participating in court hearings, assist in monitoring youth who are on probation, and preparing documents for court hearings.
