Office of Food and Nutrition Services

Child Nutrition Programs are federally funded and administered by the United States Department of Agriculture, the DJS Office of Food and Nutrition Services, and the Maryland State Department of Education.

School Breakfast Program

The School Breakfast Program provides a nutritionally balanced breakfast to youth each day according to specific age/grade groups and the nutrition standards of The Healthy Hunger-Free Kids Act of 2010.

National School Lunch Program

The National School Lunch Program provides a nutritionally balanced lunch to youth each day. School lunch menus must meet meal requirements specific to age/grade groups and the nutrition standards of The Healthy Hunger-Free Kids Act of 2010.

Summer Food Service Program

The Summer Food Service Program (SFSP) provides meals and snacks during the summer months when regular school is not in session. School-age children are eligible up through age 18. Meal sites are located throughout the State during summer months. For more information or to locate a site near you: visit Maryland Public Schools website, call 211, or text “FOOD” to 877-877.

USDA Department of Defense (DoD) Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Program

The USDA DoD Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Program enables Maryland schools to get fresh fruits and vegetables delivered on a weekly basis. Schools can allocate all or a portion of their allocated USDA Foods funds to this program. The schools order their choice of fruits and vegetables to be delivered from a Maryland based Produce Company with an emphasis on locally available products.
