

Victor Cullen Center

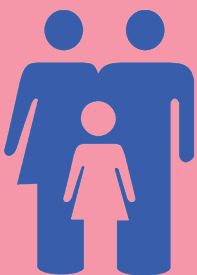

The Program

- * The Victor Cullen Center is a co-ed treatment program run by the Maryland Department of Juvenile Services. The facility is hardware-secure and is located in Frederick County.
- * Youth work toward completion of identified treatment goals as noted in their individualized treatment service plans.
- * Victor Cullen can serve up to 48 youth from across the State.
- * Positive Behavior Interventions and Supports (PBIS) is an evidence-based framework that guides the behavior motivation system using data based decision making.
- * All staff are trained in trauma-informed care.

Education

- * The Juvenile Services Education Program (JSEP) is an independent education program housed in the Department of Juvenile Services (DJS) which provides comprehensive educational services to all students placed in a DJS detention and/or residential facility.
- * JSEP schools facilitate individualized education that builds on students' strengths preparing them for continued success and positive engagement in their communities.
- * Students attend school six hours daily, year-round. Coursework is aligned with the Maryland State Department of Education (MSDE) standards and each student is enrolled in classes which meet their graduation requirements.
- * Student opportunities include Career and Technology Education (CTE) certifications, specialized instruction, GED preparation and testing, comprehensive school counseling supports, and post-secondary options.

Family Involvement & Visitation

- * Daily Visitation is offered seven days a week and requires a 24-hour notice from the family to the Facility Case Manager.
- * In-person and virtual visitation appointments cannot be scheduled during school and meal times.
- * Significant persons are permitted, meaning any individual identified by the youth who plays a supportive role in the youth's life. This could include a coach, mentor, teacher, or an additional family member, etc. Note: This will be in effect once there is no longer limited visitation.
